PUBLICATIONS OF THE FOUR SEAS COMPANY

All prices are net. Titles marked with an asterisk (*) are new books, 1922.

Titles marked with a dagger (†) are "Educational" or "Miscellaneous" books and carry special discounts.

We are always glad to send a descriptive circular or leaflet about any book in this list, or to give further information about subjects, styles of binding, prices, and so forth. Any title will be sent promptly on receipt of price plus postage. The best way to examine books, however, is to ask for them at your regular bookseller's.

A "Descriptive List of Plays," giving details as to number of persons in cast, sets, playing time, etc., will be sent free on request.

A complete descriptive catalog of "New Books," issued each Spring and Fall, will be sent free on request.

LONDON, W. C. 2

Represent Franklin and Charles in Great Britain and Ireland, on the Continent of Europe and in the British Colonies, Dependencies, and self-governing Dominions, excepting Canada.

Price List effective August 15, 1922

Franklin and MacNutt Books

Elements of Mechanics (1908) . . . . . Price $3.0

Mechanics and Heat, ... " 3.5

Elements of Electricity and Magnetism, ... " 3.0

In ordering Elements of Electricity and Magnetism care should b taken not to confuse it with the much simpler and more practical Ele mentary Electricity and Magnetism ($2.00) which is listed elsewhere.

Light and Sound, ... Price $3.0

Lessons in Heat (1920) . . . . . " 2.0

Lessons in Mechanics (1919) . . . . . " 2.7

Lessons in Electricity and Magnetism (1919). . " 2.7

Lessons in Light and Sound (1922) . . . . " 2.7

The four books last listed represent the authors' methods more com pletely and more consistently than any of the previous Franklin an MacNutt books, and the authors believe that these methods, as here se forth, will appeal to an increased circle of physics teachers in college and technical schools.

The books have been arranged to facilitate the work of the student they are in strict lesson order, they are very concise and clear, and the contain many carefully selected and graded problems.

Teachers of ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING may be interested in th Lessons in Electricity and Magnetism. The chapters on Electron Theor and Electrostatics are unique.

Practical Physics (A Laboratory Manual)

Volume I—Precise Measurements;
Lab. Studies in Mechanics and Heat . Price $2.00

Volume II—Electrical Measurements;
Lab. Studies in Elec. and Mag. . " 2.00

Volume III—Photometric Measurements;
Lab. Studies in Light and Sound . . 1.25

Calendar of Leading Experiments . . . . Price $3.50

This book is devoted chiefly to lecture experiments in physics, and it deals in an entertaining and highly interesting manner with the general subject of physics teaching.

Elementary Statics, ... In Paper Covers, Price $0.75

Many teachers may wish to enrich their course in trigonometry by using a wider variety of problems. This pamphlet gives a very simple and intelligent exposition of the principles of balanced force action, and it contains 74 very carefully arranged problems nearly every one of which involves the use of trigonometric functions.

Elementary Electricity and Magnetism, . . . Price $2.00

This book presents the elementary theory of electricity and magnetism without departing for a moment from the things and conditions which are met with in practice, it sets forth a point of view that has been urged by the authors for many years, and it deserves very careful examination and trial by teachers of Applied Electricity in Technical High Schools.

Advanced Electricity and Magnetism, . . . Price $3.50

This book presents certain important topics (Magnetism of Iron, Ship's Magnetism and the Compensation of the Compass, Inductance, Electrostatics, and Electromagnetic Wave Motion) in a manner that is unique in its simple but rigorous mathematical style and in its vivid emphasis on what is practically real.

Simple Tables, for Students of Physics and Chemistry,

Price per 100, $2.50

The Elements of Calculus,

Franklin, MacNutt and Charles . . . . . Price $3.00

A teacher of mathematics in a well-known technical school who uses this book states that he finds it highly satisfactory. In his opinion the book is unique in its directness and intelligibility, and it leaves nothing to be desired in the matter of precision and rigor.

Bill's School and Mine, by W. S. Franklin.

A Collection of Essays on Education, beautifully bound, Price $1.25

These essays are so compact and so forcible that the Independent called the book "A Package of Dynamite," and the reviewer in The Elementary School Journal (University of Chicago) says "Impossible to read these essays lying down."

Elements of Electrical Engineering, Franklin and Esty.

Volume I—Direct Currents . . . . Price $6.00

Volume II—Alternating Currents . . . " 5.50

This two-volume treatise was published in 1906-7 and it has been and still is very extensively used as a text book in our technical schools.

Dynamos and Motors, Franklin and Esty . . . Price $4.50

This is a one-volume arrangement of the simpler parts of Franklin and Esty's ELEMENTS OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

Elements of Electrical Engineering, W. S. Franklin.

Volume I—D. C. and A. C. Machines and Systems . Price $6.00

Volume II—Elec. Lighting and Misc. Application . " 4.00

This two-volume treatise was finished in 1917. It is much simpler than Franklin and Esty's ELEMENTS, and several teachers who have used it have found it highly satisfactory,—

(a) For a first course or "Survey course" for Electrical Engineering Students, and

(b) For use by Students of Civil, Mechanical, Chemical and Mining Engineering.

(c) Volume I alone is suitable for Trade School and Night School students who have had some Training in Elementary Algebra and Geometry.

Key to Problems is furnished to Teachers using W. S. Franklin's Elements of Electrical Engineering.

Dynamo Laboratory Manual, Franklin and Esty.

Volume I—Direct Current Studies and Tests . . Price $2.50

Elements of Alternating Currents,

Franklin and Williamson . . . . . Price $3.00

In his review of the first edition of this book (1899) Steinmetz expressed his approval of it as a new departure in the presentation of this important topic to students ,and the second edition (1903) is still used to some extent.

Electric Waves, W. S. Franklin . . . . . Price $4.00

The Study of Electricity by the Deductive Method,

by George Ira Alden, B. S., M. M. E. . . Price $1.50

The publication of this book has resulted from the discovery by the author of the fact that an endless flexible shaft revolving about its geometric axis is a practically universal analogy to the transmission of energy by electricity.

A considerable number of the author's students and some teachers of physics of long experience have expressed their appreciation of the assistance to be derived by the student of electricity from the use of this analogy which affords them the advantage of the deductive method of study.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Spring and Summer---1922

The books listed in these pages were published since the catalog following these pages was prepared and are not listed in the Index.

CHURCHILL, A. L., and WICKENDEN, LEONARD

The House-Owner's Book. An ideal, non-technical volume of great practical value to all people interested in homes, from the architect to the carpenter, from the prospective builder to the landlord. It should be read by everyone who owns a home, rents one, who is contemplating building one, or who possesses vast holdings. Loan associations, real-estate dealers, and builders will find it invaluable. "The House-Owner's Book" covers perplexing problems that have never before been brought together in book form, and is written with clarity and precision. It is complete along lines of wide-reaching interest. It tells the prospective house-owner how to select a site for a house, and how to finance the building of it; tells him what he needs to know about the construction of the house; has a full chapter on different kinds of common woods and their uses; a short chapter on metals used in the house; a chapter on plumbing and how to make ordinary repairs; a chapter on heating and ventilation; another on the water supply, with special reference to wells and their care; a chapter on painting, and how to do it where professional skill is not required; a chapter on electricity; a chapter on special appliances, such as the iceless ice-box, vacuum cleaners, etc.; and additional chapters on drainage, lighting, home electricity, the garage, etc. There is also a wealth of information on fire hazards in the house; gas accidents; dangers from electricity; and hazards from electrical appliances.

COWAN, SAM K.

Sergeant York and His People. A graphic, intensely interesting, and truthful account of the deeds of this American hero whom General John J. Pershing called the greatest civilian soldier of the war and whose feat Marshal Foch characterized as the World War's most remarkable individual achievement. Truthful in every statement it will be found more fascinating, more interesting than a novel.

To those who believe all Tennessee mountaineers to be "feudists," this book will provide many surprizes. To all who wish to know more of this great American hero, his home life, his friends, his surroundings, his lineage, his character—in fact, all the intimate details of his life and personality, "Sergeant York and His People" will bring hours of absorbing interest. It also reveals with mirror-like accuracy the condition and mode of life of the sturdy, pious, whole-hearted people of pure Anglo-Saxon stock who inhabit the mountain regions in Tennessee.

The author's style is particularly pleasing, being direct, forceful, and easy to read.

DIMNET, ABBÉ ERNEST, of the Faculty of the College Stanislas, Paris

French Grammar Made Clear. A grammar for schools and colleges, made up on a new plan which is designed to be of help to the pupil by giving him the rules that he must know and by leaving out all those that are unnecessary and confusing. Two of the outstanding features are the large number of phrases of the very latest coinage in both French and English, including military, aviation, naval, and war terms, political and economical expressions, etc.; and long lists of French and English conversational phrases embracing many of most recent origin. Methods of address, types of French poetry, historical material, and other valuable information is also given. Great pains are taken to explain the differences between French and English usages, showing how impossible it is in many cases to translate directly from one language into the other, and how a paraphrase is often the only remedy.

The Practical Standard Dictionary, also published as The College Standard Dictionary. An unparalleled achievement in abridged dictionary making. Outranks the Funk & Wagnalls Desk Standard Dictionary as the largest abridged dictionary published. It is, in reality, only semi-unabridged, for it contains 140,000 vocabulary terms—about 40,000 more than its nearest competitor.

One outstanding feature is the ample treatment given to faulty diction.

The subjects specially edited for this volume, so as to provide the latest material, are Anatomy, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Church Terms, Engineering, Entomology, Forestry, Geology, Medicine, Mineralogy, Pathology, Physics, Physiology, Psychoanalysis, Psychology, Radiotelegraphy, Radiotelephony, Therapeutics, War Terms.

LAUCK, W. JETT, and WATTS, CLAUDE S.

The Industrial Code. The whole work of reconstruction during the next few years will revolve about the questions taken up in this book, and the position the authors occupied, as mediators between capital and labor, gives them a peculiar authority and unusual breadth of vision. W. Jett Lauck was Secretary of the National War Labor Board, and associated with him as joint author is Claude S. Watts, who was Chief of the Division of Investigation of the same board. This was the board organized to bring about a settlement by mediation and conciliation, of all controversies arising during the war between employers and employees in all industries pertaining to the conduct of the war.

The authors give us a history of industrial developments during the war and since the armistice was declared, a presentation, in an unbiased and non-partizan way, of the problems in the present relations of labor and capital, the principles that apply, and the enlightened opinion of different social and economic groups. The book is written with due regard for the claims of both sides and is a constructive one, taking up such questions as "collective bargaining," the Kansas Industrial Court, the Esch-Townsend Railroad Act, the "right of labor to a living wage," the "right of labor to a voice in the control of industry," "the work of women," etc., and furnishes a code of principles for the future working relations between labor and capital. It is a book that will strongly appeal to men on both sides, to all economic students, and to libraries.

LEIGHTON, ROBERT

†The Complete Book of the Dog. Each recognized breed is separately considered and described in detail; each is represented by a selected example of its ideal type in the portrait of a well-known champion. Special chapters are devoted to canine medicine and surgery. Profusely illustrated. Crown 8vo, cloth. 400 pages. $3.00 net.

NORDAU, MAX

†Morals and the Evolution of Man. A translation of "Biologie der Ethik" by Marie A. Lewenz, M. A., Fellow of University College, London. The work of Dr. Max Nordau claims world-wide attention. In this, his last book, the distinguished commentator on human affairs examines the whole question of morality, whence it comes and what its sanctions are. Demy 8vo, cloth, 288 pages. $2.75 net.

POST, EMILY

Etiquette: In Society, In Business, In Politics. and at Home. The author's position in American society, her achievements as a novelist and essayist, and her wide acquaintance with social and diplomatic circles of the European capitals, enable her to write on the subject of etiquette with ease and accuracy. There are scores of books on etiquette which are the product of practised writers who have no inside knowledge of their subject or of writers not so facile who set down the most obvious ordinances of social intercourse in a manner dull, trivial, and not infrequently erroneous. Here we have authority, literary skill, and something that no book of etiquette now before the public contains, namely, the welding of the form and spirit of social life in so ingenious a fashion that we not only learn the rules of social intercourse in society, business, politics, and at home, but we actually live them out in the reading of the book.

ROBB, JOHN F.

Patent Essentials for the Executive, Engineer, Lawyer, and Inventor. Because virtually all of the well-known text books on patent law go into exhaustive detail and are written in legal phraseology, it has heretofore been most difficult for the average man to gain a clear knowledge of the important points of patent law and Patent Office procedure and practise.

From this volume, written in easily understood language for the layman, business men, engineers, young patent solicitors, recruit patent examiners, inventors and mechanics, students of patent law, lawyers with but occasional patent cases, assitants in patent law-offices, and foreign patent agents or solicitors will gain a splendid knowledge of the essential facts regarding the protection of patents, how to secure them, what is patentable, and the procedure of the Patent Office.

The author is a patent attorney of wide experience, who writes interestingly and authoritatively on his subject.

Revised Editions

FISCHER, LOUIS, M. D.

Health Care of the Baby (Revised Edition). The thirteenth edition of this work comes of a naturally increased demand which caused Dr. Fischer to rewrite it in part, add two new chapters, and carefully revise the remainder. Four important steps in the baby's life are considered with special care—airing, bathing, clothing, dieting. First aid in all contingencies has full consideration. A classic for the nursery and the home.

12mo, cloth, illustrated. 232 pages, $1.00 net.

HOLLOPETER, W. C., M. D.

Hay Fever: Its Prevention and Cure (Revised Edition). The new fourth edition of this widely used work contains information on the latest methods of treatment and the most recent well-substantiated facts regarding the causes of Hay Fever. The Immunizing method receives extensive attention. Several sections of the book have been entirely rewritten, bringing the volume down to date and in harmony with the best practise of the day.

JENKS, PROF. J. W., Ph.D., and LAUCK, PROF. W. JETT

The Immigration Problem—A Study of American Immigration Conditions and Needs (Revised Edition). (Thoroughly revised and enlarged by Rufus D. Smith, M.A., Associate Professor of Public Economy, New York University.) All available new data has been added to the text. The appendices now contain all Immigration Laws and Regulations from those of 1917 to the new law of May, 1921, together with all of the latest statistics. Prof. Smith has added three new chapters of great importance—Immigration Problems of Other Countries, The Race Problem in the Pacific, and Present and Future Restriction. This fifth edition is thus made the standard compact authority on immigration, in accordance with latest official figures and facts, holding place absolutely abreast with conditions affecting our nation's present and future.

BURTON, WILLIAM, M.A., F.C.S.

†A General History of Porcelain (Two Volumes). The author, Mr. William Burton, probably the greatest living authority on porcelain, here presents the most incisive, most authoritative, and most instructive work that has ever been published for the student and collector.

The volumes contain a complete survey of the development of porcelain from the earliest Chinese production down to the present day. They are further enriched by a series of colored plates and other illustrations which are remarkable for their quality. Of these, there are 32 plates in color and 80 in black and white, while the text also contains reproductions, in facsimile, of works connected with the various periods and porcelain factories.

The first volume deals with the porcelains of China, Japan, Korea, Persia, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and France, the second embracing chapters on the minor French factories, and the porcelains of England, Germany, Norway, Sweden, and other European countries.

FARRELL, W. J.

†The True Tone Violin. The result of years of study and experience on the part of the author as maker and player, and designed to appeal to true lovers of the violin, and give to them a better understanding of it. As there is little new in the construction of the violin, the author's only claim is that he has taken the old-time system of construction in vogue among the Cremonese makers and has applied it to present-day requirements. Illustrated. 96 pages. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50 net

FITZPATRICK, BENEDICT

Ireland and the Making of Britain. For all interested in the ages-old relations between England and Ireland this authoritative book presents revelation after revelation, shedding as it does a strange new light on the foundation of Ireland's fitness and right to again assume her place among the articulate nations of the world.

Neither friend nor foe can afford to ignore this volume, and no one henceforth will be able to intervene in the Irish controversy or pose as an authority on British or European history without taking account of its historical reconstructions.

MACARA, SIR CHARLES W.

†Recollections. The famous Brooks Agreement, "the finest example of industrial statesmanship yet framed," has prevented strikes in the cotton manufacturing industry of England for twenty years. This document was written by Sir Charles W. Macara, Bart., and in his "RECOLLECTIONS," he reveals his conciliatory methods of stopping strikes and bringing Capital and Labor harmoniously together. He also throws attractive sidelights on the manners and personal characteristics of some great men, besides giving a survey of conditions in the cotton manufacturing industry throughout the world. To all concerned in any way with Labor, Capital or Cotton, this book will have extraordinary significance. 284 pages, cloth. Crown 8vo, $2.00 net.

MAKINSON, J. T.

†Toy Manufacture. This book, believed to be the first serious volume in the English language to present information on commercial toy-making, is the work of a practical craftsman who has had wide experience in the trade, having served in German as well as English workshops. From practical experience he has been able to present in this book a large amount of information that will be new even to that public to which it makes its special appeal. 215 illustrations. 272 pages, cloth, 12mo, $1.50 net.

PAYOT, JULES, Litt.D., Ph.D.

RICHARDSON, HUBERT, N.B., B.A.

†A Dictionary of Napoleon and His Times. In popular yet exact form, and with surprizing completeness, this incomparable work gives a digest in dictionary style of all that has been written regarding Napoleon and the numerous satellites who circled around him.

Particulars of the personality of Napoleon and all that recent research has discovered regarding him are incorporated. The military, commercial, political, and artistic developments of his reign; biographical matter relating to his family from the earliest recorded member thereof down to its latest scion; his habits and idiosyncrasies; the great leaders who served or failed him; his more private life; the women he loved; and the contemporaries who set down their reminiscences of him—all are included in this work.

This indispensable volume throws light on the social and political tendencies of his time, its art, literature, and industries. The military career of the Emperor is fully treated. The various memoirs of Napoleon's life have been summarized and reviewed at length, many for the first time; a Chronological Table dealing with every important event in the Emperor's life and time has been added, as has also a select Classified Bibliography giving all the more useful, authoritative, and accessible books on Napoleon's career.

With maps, plans, a chronological table, and a classified bibliography. Crown 8vo, cloth. 497 pages, $7.00 net.

TREVES, SIR FREDERICK, Bart, G.C.V.O., C.B., LL.D.

†The Riviera of the Corniche Road. Sir Frederick's new book, "The Riviera of the Corniche Road," is of stirring, gripping interest to everybody, especially to the thousands of American tourists who have been, or who expect to go, to Southern France for this memorable Corniche Road jaunt.

Like Sir Frederick's other books, "The Other Side of the Lantern," and "The Country of the Ring and the Book," this new work is in no sense a mere record of travel; it is full of startling revelations of the past—stories of romance, love, hate, jealousy, deceit, plunder or murder, in the old towns along the Grand Corniche Road.

For instance, you read private details in the sensational career of Jeanne, the beautiful and passionate queen of Naples, ending with her strangulation. You learn the touching romance of how Blanche d'Entrevannes, the beautiful nun of St. Pons, happened to elope and marry; how Madam Ugly Face saved Nice in the siege; how a philanthropic princess gave her silver leg to the Laghet Convent, etc. There are hundreds of droll incidents.

In whatever place you pause with Sir Frederick in "The Riviera of the Corniche Road," he shows you photographs of leading structures, while you listen to the tales he has to tell about remarkable people.

Crown 8vo. 328 pages. Illustrated with 92 photographs, most of which are full-page size. $6.00 net.

UPDEGRAFF, ALLAN

"The Literary Digest" Historical and Political Atlas of New Europe and the Far East. This is a new volume containing twenty large maps printed in colors, each map accompanied by a descriptive article of the country or countries represented in it. The maps are authentic and are based upon the most recent information obtainable. In the home or in the office this handy volume will be a welcome addition for reference purposes. With the rapidly changing character of world diplomacy and the prominence which foreign countries are receiving in the news of the day, such a volume as this new Literary Digest Atlas is really necessary. Here is a list of the country or countries shown on each map: Germany; France; Russia; The British Isles; Austria; Hungary; Czecho-Slovakia; Jugo-Slavia; Bulgaria; Greece; Italy; Roumania; Turkey and Zone of the Straits; Armenia, Georgia, and Azerbaijan; Finland; Poland; Japan, Australia, New Zealand, and their Mandates in the Pacific; Palestine; The European Advance in Asia; The New Partition of Africa.

BERTRAM, REV. R. A.

A Homiletic Cyclopedia of Illustrations in Morals. Contains 5,000 useful illustrations and extracts relating to over a thousand religious and theological topics. The quotations are taken from the best authorities in the United States, England, and Continental Europe. The work also embraces the features of a homiletic commentary, throwing light on more than 4,000 texts of Scripture. Large 8vo, Cloth, 896 pp. $5.00.

The entire book is one extended index—each subject and all its heads and subdivisions are so arranged typographically that everything can be most readily found. In addition, there is a triple set of indexes, the first being an index of arrangements, with all the subdivisions. It serves as an exhaustive homiletical analysis of each topic. The second is the index of subjects, and the third is a textual index.

COBERN, CAMDEN M., D.D., Litt.D.

The New Archeological Discoveries, and Their Bearing upon the New Testament and upon the Life and Times of the Primitive Church. With Introduction by Edouard Naville, D.C.L., LL.D. While filled with material that will be of intense interest to scholars and Bible students, this illuminating work is written in a style so popular as to make a strong appeal to every book-lover. Not only does it throw strong light on the text and style of the New Testament; it also presents a most interesting picture, drawn from the original sources, of the life, social and religious customs, art, literature, family relations, etc., of the early Christian centuries, that will make the people of New Testament times as real to us as our associates and friends of to-day. The book has many illustrations, is popular in form, yet loses nothing of scientific value by simplicity of presentation. Fifth edition, revised, with author's latest additions. Large 8vo, 742 pp. $3.00.

The first section of the book, dealing with the modern discoveries of papyri, presents some hundred large pages of great fascination. Also of great interest is the second chapter on the new light from papyri upon the language of the New Testament. . . . But this is only Part I. In Part II are studied the monuments, inscriptions and other remains with respect to their bearing on the life and times of the primitive church. The material comes mainly from Palestine, Pompeii, the Roman Catacombs, Phrygia and Syria. The excavations at the famous cities mentioned in the New Testament are treated in a special section, and finally the author considers new documentary and other evidence throwing light upon the early Christian centuries. This last section treats of classical texts in the light of new discoveries, non-Biblical Jewish literature which influenced theological and ethical thought of Palestine in the first century and the intellectual, social and religious life as seen in the papyri.—The Evening Sun, New York.

"I have known for some time that Dr. Cobern was planning this book, and I rejoice that it has been successfully completed. . . . Although I have been quite familiar with the material of the book, I have found much in it that is new."—Dr. Adolph Deissmann, great German Archæological Authority.

"This is a book that was much wanted to focus together the varied material, especially papyri, that bore on early Christianity. . . . Everyone not already a specialist in these studies will be much indebted to Dr. Cobern."—W. M. Flinders Petrie, in Ancient Egypt.

"It is truly a marvelous book. It gives in simple and unprofessional language the results of vast and varied learning. It is as fascinating as a novel and as instructive as are few accessible books."—R. S. MacArthur, D.D., President Baptist World Alliance, New York City.

"You have made us all your debtors by bringing into the compass of one volume the results of so many scattered discoveries and researches. I can appreciate as perhaps few can the labor that it has cost you. I shall make much use of the book myself and take pleasure in recommending it to others. I am particularly glad that you included in the scope of the book the life and times of the primitive church.—George A. Barton, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Semitic Languages, Bryn Mawr College.

"An extremely useful collection and discussion of material of great importance for the study of the New Testament; material which is not elsewhere brought together and is far too often overlooked."—Charles C. Torrey, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Semitic Languages, Yale University.

GRASSET, JOSEPH, M.D. (Professor of Clinical Medicine, University of Montpellier, France.)

*Marvels Beyond Science. (L'Occultisme Hier et Aujourd'hui.) A record of progress in the reduction of occult phenomena to a scientific basis. With a preface by Emile Faguet of the French Academy. Authorized English translation by René Jacques Tubeuf, Fellow of the University of Paris. Dr. Grasset aimed scrupulously to mark the boundary between things already known and those which still remain beyond our understanding. He believes that phenomena still regarded occult will, in a comparatively short space of time, be included in the catalog of accepted scientific principles. 8vo. $1.75.

"Prof. Grasset is receptive enough to accept any phenomenon as possible until fraud has been proved, but he is scientific enough to bring all manifestations of the supernatural within the scope of known psychology. . . . His book is sober and incisive and attacks spiritualism from quite a different angle than that chosen by critics like Frank Podmore—it might, in fact, be called a biological analysis."—Gazette Times, Pittsburgh, Pa.

*The Semi-Insane and the Semi-Responsible. "Demifous et Demiresponsables." Translated by Smith Ely Jelliffe, M.D., New York. Authorized American Edition. No contribution to psychiatry could be more opportune than this. Dr. Grasset discusses the medico-legal aspect of crimes committed by persons who, through genius, heredity, upbringing, or trouble, are not wholly insane, and yet are not wholly sane. This is the only literature on this particular classification. 8vo, Cloth, 415 pp. $2.50.

HEXAGLOT BIBLE, THE

Comprising the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments in the original tongues. The work presents the Scriptures of the Old Testament in six languages, the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, German, and French, and the New Testament in Greek, Syriac, Latin, English, German, and French. The texts are conveniently arranged in six parallel columns, three columns on each of two opposite pages. Edited by the Rev. Edward Riches De Levante, M.A., Ph.D. Assisted by competent Biblical scholars. The prominent feature is the analytical character of each reference. The Bible student can, at a glance, find out four distinct points: (a) What the original Hebrew or Greek of any word is; (b) its literal meaning; (c) a correct and trustworthy exegesis, and (d) what are really parallel passages. Six volumes, quarto, Cloth, $60.00; Sheep, $70.00; half Morocco, $90.00.

The texts are those of the highest authorities. The Hebrew is that of Van der Hooght, carefully revised. The Greek in the old Testament is Dr. Tischendorf's latest edition, with gaps supplied in brackets, from various sources, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's eighth edition similarly supplemented. The Latin of the Old Testament is the Clementine edition of the Vulgate, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's edition of the Codex Amiatinus, with gaps supplied in brackets, from the Clementine edition. The Syriac (in the New Testament only) is based on the noted "Biblia Sacra Polyglotta." The English is the Authorized Version; the German, Martin Luther's translation, and the French is the translation by David Martin with revisions.

It is not only a sumptuous book for a library, but is also a book of comparative versions which will be of incalculable convenience and value. . . . Each version has been committed to a scholar specially qualified for editing it, and the whole has been produced in a style of printing which places the work at the head of the Biblical texts of this country.—British Quarterly Review.

Not only are the authors of the quotations given, but the book, page, and line from which they are taken are always indicated. The appendix contains a list of the authors quoted, with full names, nationality, dates, etc. The appendix also contains a large list of proverbs from the Latin, French, German, and other modern foreign languages, accompanied by English translations; and a full list of Latin law terms (with translations). Three distinct reference keys are afforded: the topics, the entry of each significant word in the concordance, and the name of the author with the numbers of the pages containing his quotations.

The Immigration Problem. A Study of American Immigration—Conditions and Needs. (Thoroughly revised and enlarged by Rufus D. Smith, M.A., Associate Professor of Public Economy, New York University.) Dr. Jenks, now Research Professor of Government and Public Administration in New York University, was an active member of the United States Immigration Commission, appointed in 1907, and Prof. Lauck, now Director of the Bureau of Applied Economics, at Washington, was officially connected therewith during the Commission's four years of searching work. Based upon the extended Report of that Commission, in forty-two volumes, this book's Fourth Edition has been revised, enlarged, and brought down to date by Prof. Rufus D. Smith, for this Fifth Edition. All available new data has been added to the text. The appendices now contain all Immigration Laws and Regulations from those of 1917 to the new law of May 19, 1921, together with all of the latest statistics. Prof. Smith has added three new chapters of great importance—Immigration Problems of Other Countries, The Race Problem in the Pacific, and Present and Future Restriction. This Fifth Edition is thus made the standard compact authority on Immigration, in accordance with latest official figures and facts, holding place absolutely abreast with conditions affecting our nation's present and future. Cloth, 8vo. Over 600 pages. $3.00.

"Altogether the work stands by itself as a complete and up-to-date compendium upon this important question."—The Living Age, Boston, Massachusetts.

"This book will continue to hold its position as the authoritative digest of the reports of the Immigration Commission, and as such will serve a widely useful purpose."—The Evening Post, New York.

"The book is the most exhaustive study of the immigration problem in compact form that we have, and the fact that the authors gave four years' study to the problem on the Immigration Commission puts them in a position to produce a standard authoritative work."—The Transcript, Boston, Mass.

We have here the most solid basis of reasoning on this great subject that we have ever had. The authors seem to have tried, and successfully, to furnish materials to persons of all views and parties for an independent judgment.—Prof. Charles R. Henderson, Ph.D., D.D. Department of Sociology and Anthropology, University of Chicago.

An admirable summary of the facts brought forth by the researches of the Immigration Commission and the conclusions and suggestions of the authors are at once comprehensive, cautious, sound. The book is one that every student of the issues of public policy in America must become familiar with.—Prof. F. H. Giddings, Department of Social Science, Columbia University.

MENTAL EFFICIENCY SERIES

Ten Volumes of uniform 16mo size, made up in the most careful manner from the writings of Aristotle, Socrates, Darwin, Spencer, William James, Muensterberg, Jastrow, Schofield, and other accepted authorities on mental science practically applied. But though in a broad way these men are the authors of these books, those who have done the actual work of collecting the material and putting it into this unusual form are a group of scientists and practical men prominent in this sort of work, not only in this country but abroad, where the study of mental efficiency has really reached a much higher plane. The great service they have performed has been to point out the practical day-by-day application of all this knowledge. The topics treated in these ten volumes are:

Poise: How to Attain It. Starke, D.
Force of Character: How to Develop It. Starke, D.
Timidity: How to Overcome It. Yoritomo-Tashi.
Influence: How to Exert It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

MENTAL EFFICIENCY SERIES—Con'd.

Common Sense: How to Exercise It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Practicality: How to Acquire It. Nicolle, R.

Opportunities: How to Make the Most of Them. Charley, L.

Perseverance: How to Develop It. Besser, H.

Speech: How to Use it Effectively in All Phases of Daily Life. Xanthes.

Personality: How to Produce It. Laurent, H.

Bound in Cloth. Price, $10.00 the set; $1.00 a volume. In half leather, or "Luxart." Price, $15.00 the set; $1.50 a volume. Sold separately.

MERTON, HOLMES W.

How to Choose the Right Vocation. Designed to help boys and young men in making their vocational decisions. MODERN SERMONS BY WORLD SCHOLARS

Ten volumes of over seventy sermons, Edited by Robert Scott and W. C. Stiles, with introduction by Newell Dwight Hillis, D.D. Each sermon, given entire, was selected (oftentimes by the preacher himself) as most representative of the authors' style and force. In every instance, where the author was living, an approval of the selection was sought and obtained, so that the ten volumes are fairly representative of the modern pulpit as characterized by these world scholars. The topics embraced are of timely interest and furnish excellent reading for the layman, as well as for the clergyman. The following are a few of the many scholars whose best pulpit efforts are included in the ten volumes:

Lyman Abbott, Walter F. Adeny, Willis J. Beecher, Llewelyn D. Bevan, Hugh Black, Borden P. Bowne, James Denny, Canon S. R. Driver, James Drummond, A. M. Fairbairn, W. H. P. Faunce, George A. Gates, David Gregg, George Hodges, Franklin Johnson, Henry Churchill King, George Trumbull Ladd, James G. K. McClure, A. C. McGiffort, Edouard Montet, A. T. Pierson, James Orr, M. B. Riddle, James Stalker, George E. Reed, Milton S. Terry, Josiah Strong, Henry Van Dyke, G. Frederick Wright, and many others.

The Life of Lord Byron. By John Galt.

The History of Civilization in Europe. By Francois Guizot.

Sentimental Journey. By Laurence Sterne.

The Reason Why—In Science. Edited by John Scott, M.A.

The Lives of Beau Nash and Others. By Oliver Goldsmith.

Christie Johnstone. By Charles Reade.

Our Brain, Body and Nerves. By Dr. Andrew Wilson.

PARKER, JOSEPH, D.D.

The People's Bible. A distinctly pastoral exposition, analyzing and applying the spiritual significance of the Scriptures, and aiming to fortify its readers with the Bible's choicest wisdom. Each volume complete in itself. In 28 vols. 8vo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

A wonderfully rich and copious work for Sunday-school teachers, stimulating thought, suggesting practical lessons, and supplying information.—The Christian Inquirer.

FEATURES OF THE WORK AND ARRANGEMENT OF THE VOLUMES

In the ordinary sense of the term the "People's Bible," is not a Biblical Commentary. The scope is broader. It is a work not only for the minister and student, but for the people. It is not intended to take the place of verbal or critical commentaries. It is not a series of sermons. There are no sermons, as such, in the entire work. The volumes are arranged as follows: 1. Genesis; 2. Exodus; 3. Leviticus–Numbers, xxv.; 4. Numbers, xxvi.–Deuteronomy; 5. Joshua–Judges, v.; 6. Judges, vi.–I. Samuel, xvii.; 7. I. Samuel, xviii.–I. Kings, xiii.; 8. I. Kings, xv.–I. Chronicles, ix.; 9. I. Chronicles, x.–II. Chronicles, x.; xxi.; 10. II. Chronicles, x.–Esther; 11. Job; 12. The Psalms; 13. Proverbs; 14. Ecclesiastes–Isaiah, xvi.; 15. Isaiah, xvii.–Jeremiah, xix.; 16. Jeremiah, x.–Daniel; 17. Hosea–Malachi; 18, 19, 20. Matthew; 21. Mark–Luke; 22. John; 23, 24, 25. The Acts; 26. Romans–Corinthians–Galatians; 27. Ephesians–Revelation; 28. Index volume to the entire work.

†The Pulpit Bible. The entire text of the Bible is printed in large, clear type, with bright and suggestive illustrations in an ample margin opposite each significant verse. The author's notes alone run to over 750,000 words. The notes are all original and they indicate the special pulpit use of each verse (where available) in the Bible. Each note is thus a suggestion for a sermon. Where space has not permitted a sufficient treatment of any passage, a copious and most carefully detailed index indicates in which of Dr. Parker's other books the particular interpretation is provided. 4to, Full Morocco, 1,351 pp., one vol. $20.00.

*†Studies in Texts. Six volumes containing new sermons, outlines, suggestions, etc., designed to be of value to preachers, Bible students, teachers, and other active religious workers, and useful for home and family readings. 6 vols., 12mo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

PARRY, D. H.

†The Victoria Cross, its Heroes, and their Valor. From Personal Accounts, Official Records and Regimental Traditions. Contains the entire history of this coveted decoration and brief accounts of those who have won it. 536 pp. With 8 full-page illustrations by Stanley L. Wood. New and Enlarged Edition. Crown 8vo, Cloth gilt, gilt edges. $2.00.

PARTRIDGE, WILLIAM ORDWAY

Nathan Hale, the Ideal Patriot. A graphic narrative of the events in Hale's life, leading up to his sacrifice and death, and also a study of his character, and a comparison of Hale and André. 12mo, Cloth, 134 pp., deckle edges, gilt top, cover design in gold. Photogravure frontispiece and 12 full-page half-tone illustrations, including drawings by W. R. Leigh. $1.00.

The Czar's Gift. This is an addition to the "Hour-Glass Series" by the well-known Sculptor who will be remembered as the author of "The Angel of Clay," "Nathan Hale," etc. Cloth. 40 cents.

PATTERSON, CHARLES BRODIE

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

IT BRINGS TO THE PREACHER'S ATTENTION hundreds texts heretofore almost wholly passed over by the ılpit. Spurgeon, in his Commenting and Commenries, says: "We have next to nothing on Kings." the Homiletic Commentary we have on Kings one 743 treatments of texts. The same is true of her books, as Jeremiah. New expositions, critical otes, illustrations, etc., are poured in upon neglected xts, and additional light thrown upon old texts.

IT IS THE ONLY COMMENTARY that supplies a seronic treatment of homiletic suggestion on every erse of both the Old and New Testaments that can e used to advantage as a sermon text.

IT CONCENTRATES THE LIGHT of all ages and of all ountries on the text.

IT IS WHOLLY FREE FROM DENOMINATIONAL BIAS, beg strictly evangelical.

IT SUGGESTS THOUSANDS OF THEMES AND ILLUSTRATIONS for sermons, also many hundreds of useful illustrations.

IT THROWS NEW LIGHT upon the present controversies over the Old Testament.

THE COMMENTARY IS WHOLLY IN ENGLISH, avoiding Hebrew and Greek, except here and there in the critical notes.

THE INDEXES are useful and practical.

The Rosenthal Linguistry System French, German, Spanish, and Italia This system has met with world-wid success because it is the natural meth od of learning a language. It com mences by associating words wit ideas. By this means the student waste no time with unnecessary rules of gram mar and syntax, but begins to use th language itself at once by saying thing that mean something and will be o practical use to him. Every minute de voted to this system results in usabl knowledge. The distinguishing featur of this method is the proper selectio of a vocabulary that can be employe to advantage in every-day life. Thi common-sense system of learning for eign tongues in the easiest and mos natural way is supplied in four lan guages, French, German, Italian an Spanish. 12mo. Price for any on language, $6.00.

The Language Phone Method

Used in connection with the Rosentha Linguistry System this method supplie the one best means for learning a lan guage successfully. By use of th phonograph and of records made by native professor in the particular lan guage to be studied, the student i enabled to hear in a clear, culture voice the right pronunciation of ever word as he studies its meaning. Thi gives him a speaking as well as a read ing knowledge of the language con cerned, something that can be obtaine by no other system of home instruction Terms and descriptive literature will b sent on application.

SALEEBY, C. W., M.D., F.R.S., Edin.

†The Progress of Eugenics. In 1909 Dr. Saleeby, under the title of "Parenthood and Race Culture," told the story of the Eugenic movement up to that date. He now reviews its progress; deals many a blow at the open opponents of eugenics; and protests vigorously against those who seek to identify the science with theories which he regards brutal in spirit, immoral in principle, and impossible in practise. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

Discussion of the three primary divisions of the subject—Positive Eugenics, or the encouragement of worthy parenthood; Negative Eugenics, or the discouragement of unworthy parenthood; and Preventive Eugenics, or a study of racial poisons—constitutes a study of this subject which should be read by every parent and public-spirited person in the country, to say nothing of its relation to the whole religious and social problem.—Christian Standard, Cincinnati.

Based on the celebrated German Hauck-Herzog Realencyklopädie für Protestantische Theologie und Kirche. Prepared by more than six hundred scholars and specialists under the supervision of Samuel Macauley Jackson, D.D., LL.D., Editor-in-Chief, Associate Editor with Dr. Philip Schaff, of the First Edition, Professor of Church History in New York University, with the assistance of Charles Colebrook Sherman, Managing Editor, and George William Gilmore, M.A., Bibliographical Editor, and the following Department Editors: James Frederick McCurdy, Ph.D., LL.D., University College, Toronto; Clarence Augustine Beckwith, D.D., Chicago Theological Seminary; Henry King Carroll, LL.D., Corresponding Secretary Methodist Missionary Society; Henry Sylvester Nash, D.D., Cambridge Theological School; Albert Henry Newman, D.D., LL.D., Baylor University, Texas; John Thomas Creagh, D.D., Catholic University of America, Washington; James Francis Driscoll, D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary. Complete in twelve 8vo volumes, aggregating about six thousand pages and an Extended Index, forming a Supplementary 8vo Volume of 211 pages, compiled with great care, by Prof. George William Gilmore, Associate Editor of the work, to make available, with the least possible expenditure of time to the reader, all its rich treasures of knowledge. In this Index, vocabulary titles are printed in Small Capitals; and all entries are intended to register passages where actual information is given upon the topic suggested. It is notably a working Index, which the student will appreciate for its frequent convenience and its great practical value. Price of the 13 volumes in Cloth, $64; in Half Morocco, $102; in Full Morocco, $128. Separate volumes sold in cloth only, $5.

It contains the best and latest information, put together in a catholic spirit, free from rash theorizing and immature conclusions.—Prof. A. H. Sayce, D.D., LL.D., Oxford University.

Its extent, variety, and accuracy of information are notable. Its digest of facts and its tabular statistics make it indispensable for reference.—M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., LL.D., Pres. Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

In its original form this work has been familiar to students for many years. In this edition the original articles have been reconstructed and brought up to date by distinguished American theologians, under the able editorship of Dr. Jackson. Two features are specially worthy of note: The insertion of hundreds of biographies of men of the present generation on the same pages as those of ancient and Scripture history, and the remarkable and extensive bibliography attached to the articles. The latter is probably the most useful feature of the present edition, and could hardly be excelled.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

Throughout the entire work there is manifested a spirit of fairness and broad-minded charity towards all. Where a subject admits of discussion, both sides, or all sides, are usually represented by their best available advocate, and this same spirit is evidenced in all articles of a sectarian character.—Herald, Rochester, N. Y.

It offers a great variety of imformation, clearly and compactly given, and more interesting to general readers than those who never meddle with reference books can easily understand.—Times, Hartford, Conn.

It is universal in its scope, embracing all religions, all sects, all creeds, and all variations of religious thought and philosophy, and it covers every phase of ecclesiastical and theological discussion.—Record, Los Angeles, Cal.

†Nerves in Disorder. This work aims to dispel ignorance regarding all functional nervous diseases and to set forth scientific principles for successfully treating these troubles, not only by physicians, but also by the sufferers themselves. 12mo, Cloth, 218 pp. $1.50.

CHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D.—Cont'd.

The Home Life in Order. This book deals with subjects of pressing and every-day interest to us all. Dr. Schofield writes not alone of the household and its hygiene, but of the human body as to its organization, functions, and needs in the matter of care. The author is a prominent physician and lecturer of London. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $2.00.

The Force of Mind, or the Mental Factor in Medicine. The action of the mind in the cause and cure of many disorders is considered from new and scientific standpoints in this work, with suggestions for the practical use of this knowledge by physicians and laymen. The author shows that the mental factor is the one out of many ever present in some form in all diseases and how this information can be used by physicians and patients. This volume is endorsed and used as a text-book by the founders and practitioners of the Emmanuel Movement. 12mo, Cloth, 347 pp. $2.00.

"The sanest attempt we have seen to deal with the ntal factor in disease. It is a book that every phyian ought to read. It will help him to understand y the personal factor counts so much toward the sician's success or failure."—The Medical Stand-

All that concerns the training of the young and the perfecting of our own lives in every-day professional or business life is treated by the author. 8vo, Cloth, 259 pp., topical index and list of books on the subject. $2.00.

All the subtle and occult as well as educational and side agencies that tell upon the developing charact are exhaustively considered.—St. Louis Globe-mocrat.

The Unconscious Mind. Fourth Edition. Its object is to establish the fact of an unconscious mind in man, and to trace in brief some of its powers and the various ways in which they are exhibited. The work seeks to show that this mind is the seat of character and of conscience and spirit-life, and a most important factor in psychical and physical life. The subjects of habit, memory, muscular action, therapeutics, education, sensation, disease, character, sex, etc., are discussed in their relation to the unconscious mind. 8vo, Cloth, 451 pp. With diagram. $3.00.

It is one of the best works that has been our ivilege to examine on the application of the prinles and results of the New Psychology. . . . The rk has a therapeutic as well as psychological value. is a work that every college professor and every blic-school teacher, as well as every physician and nister, will enjoy.—Baptist Commonwealth, Philalphia.

SCHUYLER, WILLIAM

Under Pontius Pilate. New Edition. 12mo, Cloth, 352 pp. $1.50.

The book has the merit of making the events in the life of Christ seem like actual history and as being connected with the great Roman Empire in an intimate way. We can never fully understand Christianity until we give Palestine and its events in Christ's day an exact historical perspective.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The World's Devotional Classics. Selections forming a set of ten volumes born in the hearts of consecrated men, lived in their lives, and redolent of their saintliness. From the writings of sixty-five such men, covering a wide range. All periods between the old Jewish congregation and the modern Christian Church, all branches of the historic church—Western and Eastern, Latin, Greek, Coptic, Jacobite and Protestant —have been drawn upon. Under different conditions of time, culture, and environment, these writers are seen to be united in breathing and magnifying the life lived in the Spirit of God. For inspiration to private and public devotion these volumes will be found ever abounding and helpful. 16mo, Cloth; in a box. Sold only by subscription.

Little jewels in any minister's library. They have a real and vital mission.—Rev. K. E. Irvin, Dubois, Pa.

The selections must approve themselves to all who have religious insight and literary sensibility.—President Charles M. Stuart, Garrett Biblical Institute.

"The richness, beauty, and wealth of thought contained in these volumes make them lasting fountains of inspiration."—Rev. F. W. Tingley, Acton, Mass.

The Devotional Classics are to my soul as honey dropping from the comb, as gardens of rarest beauty, as orchards of choicest fruits.—J. C. McFeeters, D.D., Philadelphia.

"I have often felt the need of books on devotions, and in these ten volumes I find my need supplied." —Rev. W. C. Martin, Pastor M. E. Church, South Durham, N. C.

†"SERGEANT-MAJOR." (See "With the R. A. M. C. In Egypt.")

SERMON BIBLE, THE

A sermon library, containing 4,800 sermon outlines with more than 24,000 homiletical references and embracing the whole of the Sacred Scriptures. It gives the essence of the very best homiletic literature of the present generation, and it is a source of inexhaustible help to the preacher, student, or other Christian worker.

The supreme value of The Sermon Bible lies in its fertility of suggestiveness. Many a preacher or speaker grows weary at times of "seeking for suggestive hints." He wanders over acres of miscellaneous writing and can hunt up nothing pertinent. The process is an exhausting preliminary to the making of a discourse. It will be entirely obviated by judicious resort to the volumes of The Sermon Bible. Upon thousands of text-topics the desired aid will be instantly discovered, and the mind will be set going in the right direction, with an initial impetus toward original thought.

In 12 volumes. 12mo, Cloth. $1.75 per volume; $21.00 per set.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

The plan of the work, in general, gives under each text, each being in its consecutive order from Genesis to Revelation: (1) Outline of important sermons by eminent preachers which exist only in manuscript or periodicals, and are thus inaccessible; or, (2) less full outlines of sermons which have appeared in volumes that are not well known or easily obtained; or, (3) reference to or very brief outlines of sermons which appear in popular volumes such as are likely to be in a preacher's library; and (4) full references to theological treatises, commentaries, etc., where any help is given to the elucidation of the text. Thus the preacher, having chosen his text, has only to refer to the Sermon Bible to find some of the best outlines and suggestions on it and very helpful references to all the aids available. Blank pages are bound in the end of each volume for manuscript notes.

SHIRLEY, THE HON. RALPH

A Short Life of Abraham Lincoln. The arrangement of peace with the Central Powers has called up so many allusions to Lincoln's handling of the Southern States at the close of the Civil War that this concise and authoritative account of the part he played in preserving the Union and suppressing slavery meets a considerable popular demand. 12mo, Cloth, Illustrated. $1.25.

. . . the bulk of Lincolniana is marred by a tendency to make a god of our great war president; and out of our intense admiration for the man, we have insisted that the bare facts, far from belittling him, tend rather to show more clearly than does panegyric what a moral giant he was. It appears that Ralph Shirley also holds some such view as is here expressed; for there is not a touch of the usual delirious praise in the compact yet comprehensive volume before us. Throughout this story of Lincoln's life is almost bald in its simple factuality; yet we have never read anything on Lincoln that left a more distinct impression of greatness than does Mr. Shirley's work. . . . The book ought to be valuable for supplementary reading in schools.—Journal, Minneapolis.

SMITH, F. BERKELEY

The Real Latin Quarter. Racy sketches of the life and characters of the famous Bohemia of Paris. So real are its descriptions that the reader feels that he has taken an actual trip through the Quarter. With 100 drawings and camera snap shots by the author, two caricatures in color by the French caricaturist Sancha, and water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith. 12mo, Cloth, 305 pp. $1.50.

When you have read this book you know the "Real Latin Quarter" as well as you will ever come to know it without living there yourself.—The Mail and Express, New York.

How Paris Amuses Itself. In spirit the reader can visit with a delightful comrade all the nooks of jollity known only to the initiated, and enjoy all the sparkle and glitter of that ever-moving panorama of gaiety. 135 illustrations, six in colors, 16 full-page half-tone inserts, 58 full-page text drawings, 55 half-page and smaller text drawings by the author and other artists. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental cover, 334 pp. $1.50.

Few men since Thackeray have succeeded in making Bohemian Paris such a living, breathing thing.—Baltimore Herald.

Parisians Out of Doors. It is said of the French that they live out of doors, and Mr. Smith in this book gives a true picture of this real life of the Parisian. 12mo, Cloth, water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith, and numerous drawings and photographs by the author. $1.50.

It is a kaleidoscopic miscellany of anecdote, grave and gay; brief bits of biography and impressionistic portrayal of types, charming glimpses into Parisian life and character, and, above all, descriptions of the city's chief, and to outward view, sole occupation—the art of enjoying oneself.—The Globe, New York.

In London Town. The hotels, the music halls and those who frequent them, the gay procession on the Strand, and in fact all the phases that go to make up every-day (and night) life in the great British maelstrom are flashed before the reader's eyes in a captivating fashion. Cloth, profusely illustrated with sketches and photos. $1.50.

It is brilliantly written. The glimpses of London are not at all like anything we are accustomed to in descriptions of London.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SMITH, GOLDWIN, D.C.L., LL.D.

The Moral Crusader: William Lloyd Garrison. A biographical essay, founded on "The Story of Garrison's Life, Told by His Children." With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 200 pp. $1.00.

This essay is worthy of a place in every American library.—Morning Star, Boston.

EXCLUSIVE POINTS OF SUPERIORITY

The Funk & Wagnalls New Standard is the ONLY Dictionary that

1. Covers its entire contents under One Alphabetical Order—a great saving of time.
2. Gives the common, present-day meaning of words first, the obsolete meaning last.
3. Carries two keys for pronunciation on every page of its vocabulary.
4. Uses as one of these the key recommended by the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association for adoption by that Association.
5. Presents a consensus of correct pronunciation by the decisions of 25 Experts from the leading educational institutions of the English-speaking world.
6. Makes a point of definition by definitive statement.
7. Includes in its vocabulary the simpler spelling of English words recommended for adoption by the Simplified Spelling Board.
8. Follows a systematic method of compounding words.
9. Gives the key-words to the contents of all pages, for aid in consultation.
10. Contains rules governing grammatical and rhetorical construction.
11. Gives the rules for the simplification of spelling.
12. Employs the best and shortest system of respelling for pronunciation—the Revised Scientific Alphabet, 42 symbols for the 42 sounds of the English language.
13. Gives the rules governing the formation of the plurals of nouns, correct forms of address, etc.
14. Gives the name of the female of the principal animals under the name of the male, as, horse, mare.
15. Gives the antidote for each poison under the poison itself, and repeats them all under the antidote.
16. Makes a point of systematically correcting the common errors of speech.
17. Gives 32,000 quotations, in the author's own words and spellings, crediting author, volume, page, section or stanza; publisher and date of publication.
18. Gives 7,500 separate lists of synonyms, with discussion of more than 23,000 synonymous terms.
19. Gives antonyms—nearly 5,000 of them.
20. Gives the exact date of an event, if obtainable, in biographical, historical, geographical, and other entries.

21. Shows the latest change in form of government of territorial divisions in America and Europe.
22. Records a day-by-day history of the world, covering 31,000 facts in this record alone. In subscription editions only.
23. Presents the most authoritative and latest data on Geological Science as a result of consultation with experts of the U. S. Geological Survey.
24. Shows pictorial illustrations carefully directed by experts in specialties—such as Orville Wright in aviation, Frederick Sammis in wireless telegraphy, etc.
25. Has made a feature of illustrations representing appliances for protecting human life.
26. Locates Bible-names by book, chapter, and verse, so as to be easily found.

Know What the World Is Doing!

Two hours spent weekly in reading The Literary Digest will afford you definite, reliable information on every important happening all over the world. The Digest is CLEAN. Sensational, useless, "slushy" news is omitted, but every event of importance is covered.

All sides of the world's news without our views is the unique policy of The Literary Digest. The editors do not write their views, but they quote from and reflect the opinions of the leading publications of the world on both sides of every question.

The World's Greatest Magazine of Clean, Valuable, Reliable News

The Literary Digest

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

MEN and women who read The Literary Digest take an intelligent and authoritative part in any conversation, anywhere. It gives you all sides and shades of opinion concerning every happening of moment in the realms of Science, Politics, Sport, Art, Literature, Religion, Education, Industry, etc. Profusely illustrated.

Good reading begets good thinking. You get just such reading on every essential topic of the day in The Literary Digest.

It's INTERESTING and at the same time it's VALUABLE reading matter.

The late Senator Benjamin R. Tillman: "It is invaluable to the busy man."

Hudson Maxim, Inventor Smokeless Powder, etc.: "The most indispensable periodical published to-day."

Thos. A. Edison, Orange, N. J.: "I believe that at the present time The Literary Digest prints the most valuable and interesting matter of any publication of similar character that I know of."

Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Ex-Sec'y, of State: "It is unique among the weeklies, combining in one magazine scores of others, and thus has become indispensable to the busy man who would know what is taking place in the world around him."

Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, United States Supreme Court: "It supplies a want felt alike by professional and lay readers."

Francis E. Clark, President Christian Endeavor Union: "It winnows the multiplicity of newspapers and tells us the most important things which they contain."

Brand Whitlock, American Minister to Belgium: "I have taken The Literary Digest for a great many years, and I should not like to be without it. I think it is invaluable to one who wishes to know what is going on in the world, and it gives, I think, with quite as much of the impersonal feeling as is possible to human beings, both sides of every question."

Issued Weekly; 48 to 128 Pages. Profusely Illustrated; $4.00 Per Year; 10 Cents Per Copy

Canadian Postage, 85 Cents; Foreign, $2.00

Every Word used in War or Peace is fully defined in the NEW Standard

The World's Great Wonder Book---

It gives accurate, concise, and the most recent information on every Word, Name, Place, Person, and Thing; on every Phrase, Term, and Expression in the living English language—on everything alive that can be spelled in English.

Lavish Expenditure to Make It Superior---

It cost nearly $1,500,000 to complete; for nearly four years 380 of the world's foremost editors and specialists labored upon it unceasingly.

A Reference Work Beyond Comparison---

There are nearly 3,000 pages; 7,000 pictorial illustrations, including many beautiful colored plates; it defines 450,000 terms, many thousands more than any other dictionary. It is the only dictionary the contents of which are arranged in one alphabetical order—an immense time-saver.

Most Authoritative Dictionary---

Six months after publication 75,000 copies had been sold; it is the dependable authority in all branches of the United States Government, in Courts of Law, in the leading Universities and Colleges, and in the Public Schools. In commercial life the NEW Standard is popularly recognized as the one dictionary that never fails.

U.S. Commissioner of Education Claxton:
"This great work can not fail to be a distinct contribution to English scholarship."

John Wanamaker, Famous Merchant:
"Artistic, complete and of unrivaled excellence."

Earl Kitchener, Secretary of State for War:
"A valuable book which will be of great utility to me."

George W. Kirchwey, LL.D., Columbia Univ. Law School:
"It makes all other dictionaries look pale and insignificant beside it."

A Superb Christmas Gift

For the home, the school, the business and professional office, no present can be more useful or acceptable than this handsome volume; it will serve for years to come as a constant and valuable reminder of the giver.

La Velle Bob Link Books

These unique and extremely beautiful sets are in a class by themselves. Each set contains a 16 page book 8 x 11 in. with heavy board cover. Inside and cover illustrations in full colors by the foremost child artists in the country—Willy Pogany and Maud and Miska Petersham—are reproduced on heavy coated paper. Balance of pages are on heavy antique book paper printed in two colors. Books can be opened flat—a very necessary feature, when used on the piano.

There are with each set also, two double faced records prepared especially for children, with child songs and sayings, so clearly enunciated that children do not have the usual difficulty in understanding them.

Song Books

There are two song books each with a series of children's stories as well as music scores for the piano and words of four delightful folk songs. An entertaining story about each song, as well as reproductions in full colors of magnificent descriptive paintings of child subjects by Willy Pogany. Each song, sung by the eminent tenor, Chas. Harrison, is reproduced on double faced phonograph records, that can be played on the standard makes of Talking Machines. These records have a combined playing time of 14 minutes.

Reading Books

The two reading book outfits have been made up in the same beautiful design as the song book sets, although presenting an entirely different thought. Each book contains delightful child's verses, as well as stories about each one and reproductions in full colors of magnificent, illustrative paintings by Maud and Miska Petersham. On the double faced records in each set the famous artist, Gilbert Girard, imitates, in a very life-like and appealing way, cows, horses, ducks, sheep—all the favorite animals of the child.

COMPLETE PRICE LIST

This list is arranged alphabetically by authors and, in addition, under subjects or series. For greater convenience a few books are listed also by title.

The code words, in italics after each entry, which may be used in telegraphic orders are from Bentley's Complete Phrase Code, Improved. The original meaning of the Bentley codes has been disregarded and our own titles substituted therefor. Consequently do not use the regular Bentley Code in messages where our books are ordered by code. Cable address, Eginn, Boston or New York.

The conditions under which keys for teachers' use may be obtained will be furnished on application to any one of our offices.

JUVENILE BOOKS

THE BOYS AND GIRLS' FIRESIDE SERIES

A CHOICE SET OF BOOKS FOR THE YOUTH

Compiled by A. L. Byers

This series is an arrangement, in permanent form, of many excellent and interesting narratives, trips and adventures, little sermons, Bible stories, descriptions of nature, various industries, and foreign customs, missionary experiences, and little poems. Each volume is superbly illustrated and entirely complete in itself.

Much care was exercised in the selection of the material for this set of books. The stories, though many of them are about travel and adventure, are founded on facts and contain moral lessons. Thus, they serve a twofold purpose—while they entertain, they also inspire to a higher and nobler life.

Space will permit only a brief description of each volume, but we may rest assured that they will prove to be a valuable addition to any library. While they are especially adapted to the needs of young readers, older people as well will find them very interesting and instructive.

THINGS THAT HAPPENED — 96 pages — 75 cents
True to facts, entertaining, instructive.

TRIPS AND ADVENTURES — 96 pages — 75 cents

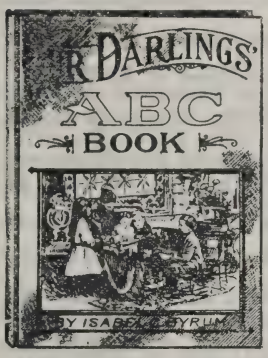
COUNTRIES AND CUSTOMS — 96 pages — 75 cents
True stories of people in other lands.

HAPPY HOME SERIES

By Isabel C. Byrum

This series, written by a sainted mother who is thoroughly acquainted with child-life and child-nature, consists of four volumes filled with practical and useful stories and information which will go a long ways in helping to solve every parents' problems which pertain to the training of their children. Each volume is unique in its line and field of thought and will prove of immeasurable value if placed in the hands of children.



OUR DARLINGS' A B C BOOK

Contains the letters of the alphabet printed in red type two inches high. Accompanying each character is an appropriate verse, a picture and a story, all relating to an incident in the life of some Bible character.

Cloth 64 large pages 60 cents

HAPPY HOURS AT HOME

The lessons taught in this book make for the building of a strong character. The Christian is regarded as a knight, and evil influences and tendencies are considered as giants whom the knight must fight and overcome. The book describes his conflicts with these giants. The young people thus receive instruction in Christian living and are entertained at the same time.

Cloth 96 large pages 60 cents

BED-TIME STORIES

are taken for the most part from the Old Testament. They are written in the simple language of childhood and supply parents with material for the entertainment and the elevation of their children.

These stories will brighten many family circles and influence many young hearts for Christ.

96 large pages Size 7x9 Cloth 60 cents

TWILIGHT TALKS WITH THE CHILDREN

Seventeen chapters brimful of interest and food for thought for the juniors. Each chapter consists of a short story. Spiritual and moral lessons are taught in such a manner that they will not be soon forgotten by the children. Simple language characterizes this book, as well as the other volumes of this series.

Cloth 96 large pages 60 cents

BITS OF BIOGRAPHY

By A. L. Byers

Stories and lives of great men and women.

Size 5x7¼ 150 pages 75 cents

MISSIONARY EXPERIENCES

By A. L. Byers

Startling experiences of heroes on the mission-fields.

Size 5x7¼ 150 pages 75 cents

IN NATURE'S HAUNTS
By Wm. A. Bixler

An interesting and instructive volume which discusses in a variety of fascinating stories the natural phenomena of light, rain, air, sound, electricity, and almost all the other elements of nature. The author presents all these wonders of nature in such a way that the reader is inspired and encouraged to continue in his study of the mighty work of God's creation. Illustrated with reproductions of photographs made by the author.

Cloth 192 large pages $1.00

LIGHT ON THE CHILD'S PATH
By Wm. A. Bixler

A book for small children. Each of its stories and poems illustrates a Bible truth. Beautiful thoughts clearly expressed make this volume one that is prized by the little people. Profusely illustrated with interesting pictures.

Cloth 128 large pages 50 cents

HOW JOHN BECAME A MAN
By Isabel C. Byrum

This is a true, pathetic, and most interesting story of a motherless boy who grew into young manhood amid the most evil and degrading influences of sin on the Western Plains. The story of how he found the Savior and how he was lifted from the debasing elements of sin to the Christian's high plane of purity will wield an influence for good over every boy who reads it.

Cloth 96 pages 50 cents

THE PILOT'S VOICE
By Isabel C. Byrum

This highly profitable story of a wayward boy is written in a manner that holds the rapt interest of all who read it. It will restrain its youthful readers from going astray, or if they have already done so, will pilot them back into the safe harbor of right living.

Cloth 224 pages 60 cents

THE POORHOUSE WAIF
By Isabel C. Byrum

A true story of an orphan boy made fatherless by the Civil War. He was deserted in infancy by his unfeeling mother, cared for at a poorhouse several years later, taken back by his mother, misunderstood and mistreated by her as well as many others. How he fared and felt during all these eventful years, and how, although untaught regarding God and his Word, he was gradually led into a Christian life and brought to useful and happy manhood, is a story both absorbing and inspiring, but true in every detail.

Cloth 224 pages 60 cents

THE VALUE OF A PRAYING MOTHER
By Isabel C. Byrum

The principles brought out in the Value of a Praying Mother are not mere theories, but they have the commendation of having the test of successful use.

By observing the results accomplished by a praying mother in this book, the thoughtful parent may discover the secret of success in child training.

173 pages Size 5x7¼ Cloth 60 cents

A NOBLE LIFE
By Mary C. Haskett

This book will teach the young lessons of priceless value in truthfulness, honor, purity, manliness, and the building of noble character. It will go far in making the child a blessing to home, community, and nation.

Cloth 96 pages 50 cents

STEPS HEAVENWARD

By R. L. Berry

A book of rare value for the young convert. It is the fruit of many years' experience by the author in his dealings with converts just beginning their Christian career. He points out the snares and pitfalls of the enemy and shows the stepping-stones to heaven. It helps the Christian to strengthen his faith in God and press on to the reward awaiting those who finish the course.

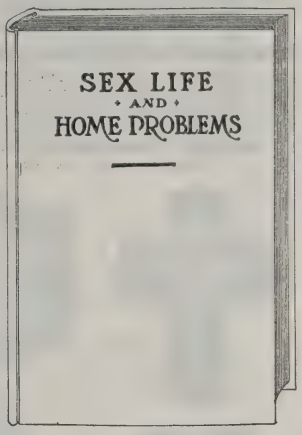
128 pages Cloth 60 cents

SEX LIFE AND HOME PROBLEMS

By J. Grant Anderson

This book deals with subjects of vital importance to the happiness of every home. Many homes and lives have been ruined because of a lack of knowledge of these problems. The author, without fear or self-restraint, goes right to the heart of the subject and vividly sets forth that important knowledge so often kept in the background. He lays aside all affected, false modesty, yet the book is unobjectional. Every home and marriageable man or woman should have this book.

196 pages Cloth 75 cents



BEAUTIFUL GIRLHOOD

By Mabel Hale

A wonderful message for girls. Mabel Hale, in writing like a big sister, soon wins the confidence of girls and imparts to them knowledge of the problems that lie near to their heart. She shows them how to develop from beautiful girlhood into a beautiful womanhood. A real companionable book for real girls. Artistically arranged.

232 pages Colth $1.00

PROBLEMS OF ETERNAL MOMENT

By J. Grant Anderson

An evangelistic work on vital topics of eternal purport. "The day of speculative theology is past," Brother Anderson tells us, "and men demand eternal verities." The message is positive, clear, and heart-searching. It points the way toward heaven, while it also reveals the gems of truth that sprinkle the golden way to the eternal city. It begins with a chapter on the "Word of God" and ends with a chapter on "The Christian's Hope."

WINNING A CROWN

By C. W. Naylor

"The Christian life is not all sunshine and roses; neither is it all shadows and brambles."

Thirteen years ago the author met with a serious accident which has kept him practically bedfast since; but he still finds joy in the service of the Lord. His book "Winning a Crown" is designed to point out and solve problems that relate to the spiritual life; it will help the Christian to find the joy and peace in the service of God.

368 pages Cloth 75 cents

ART-VELVET MOTTOS

The mottos herein described comprise a variety of designs and texts, artistically embossed on a rich velvety surfaced Art board of different colors. This, with attractive designs, most of which are hand-colored, gives the mottos an exceptionally pleasing and artistic appearance. Each motto is corded ready to hang up.

FOREWORD

In this catalogue you will find listed not only the best works of fiction, but a splendid assortment of clean, wholesome books for boys and girls, and delightful series of children's books of decided educational value, entertainingly written.

In building the home library nothing could be better than the Grosset & Dunlap books, for they enable the reader to purchase two books for the price of one. And moderate prices do not mean that these books have been compelled to suffer either as to workmanship, durability or attractiveness, for they will be found in every way desirable volumes to add to the library.

Wherever books are sold, Grosset & Dunlap publications may be obtained; but where bookshops are not available, any books will be sent on receipt of price by the publishers.

EVERY WRAPPER

on a book of Grosset & Dunlap fiction bears on its reverse side, arranged alphabetically according to authors, a list of the best books of fiction issued during recent years. Only books that have made good find their way into this list.

Keep this catalogue where it will be easy to refer to it.

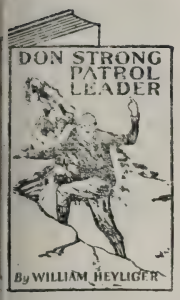
EVERY BOY'S LIBRARY

THESE BOOKS FOR BOYS SHOULD BE IN EVERY PUBLIC AND SCHOOL LIBRARY



Give the boy books he likes—which means red-blooded stories of adventure, of sports, of scouting, of clean manliness and ideals, which are at the same time approved by such an authority as the Library Commission of the Boy Scouts of America. EVERY BOY'S LIBRARY contains only books which by a nation-wide canvass have proved to be most uni-rsally in demand by the boys themselves. Thus, these books come aranteed, not only by the boys themselves, but by every librarian who s made a study of books for boys' reading.

LAMP-LIGHT TALES

By PAULINE CARRINGTON BOUVE

A collection of fascinating stories for children. Fairy tales, stories based on actual happenings in history, imaginative stories, stories on various delightful subjects and incidents. They will appeal to every kind of child, to boys and girls of all ages, sizes and tastes.

There were six little cousins and as each wanted a different kind of a story, Polly Flinders solved the problem by telling an adventure story to suit Bobbie; an animal story to please Boy Blue; stories of children in far lands; true, or history stories; stories about people living here in America, to satisfy the three larger girls; and lastly a fairy tale to please little Bee.

So it happened that Lamp-Light tales were told, and that they were called LAMP-IGHT TALES because they were told just after study hour and before bedtime.

Large 12mo. Cloth bound, with a four color jacket and frontispiece and 28 full ge black and white illustrations.

THE PEE-WEE HARRIS STORIES

By PERCY KEESE FITZHUGH

Here is another splendid series of Scout stories, about the jolly lads we have learned to know and love in the Roy Blakeley and the Tom Slade books. This series features our wide-awake friend Pee-wee Harris and his adventures.

All readers of the Tom Slade and the Roy Blakeley books are acquainted with Pee-wee Harris. These stories record the true facts concerning his size (what there is of it) and his heroism (such as it is), his voice, his clothes, his appetite, his friends, his enemies, his victims. Together with the thrilling narrative of how he foiled, baffled, circumvented and triumphed over everything and everybody (except where he failed), and how even when he iled, he succeeded. The whole recorded in a series of screams and told with neither uffler nor cut-out.

Beautiful picture jackets in colors, well illustrated.

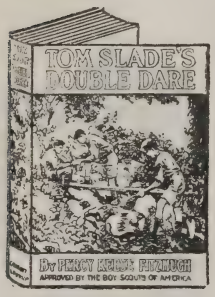
BOOKS FOR BOYS

A real boy with healthy, red corpuscles chasing through his veins will fight shy of a book that doesn't ring true. He can tell it every time. If the characters of the book he reads make good, they become his friends forever. Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer have made countless friends in the generations past. The boys who are growing up in this generation are coming to know Roy Blakeley, Tom Slade and Pee-wee Harris in the same intimate, enthusiastic way. In other words, the TOM SLADE, ROY BLAKELEY and PEE-WEE HARRIS BOOKS have passed the Boy test. And that is the real test for a book for boys.

The Tom Slade Books

By PERCY KEESE FITZHUGH



"Let your boy grow up with Tom Slade" is a suggestion which thousands of parents have followed during the past, with the result that the TOM SLADE BOOKS, by the same author as the ROY BLAKELEY STORIES, are the most popular boys' books published today. They take Tom Slade out of the unwholesome surroundings of Barrel Alley and carry him through a series of typical boy adventures through his tenderfoot days, through his manly experiences as a scout, through his gallant days as an American doughboy in France, back to his old patrol and the old camp ground at Black Lake, and so on.

Beautiful picture wrappers in colors.
Handsomely illustrated.

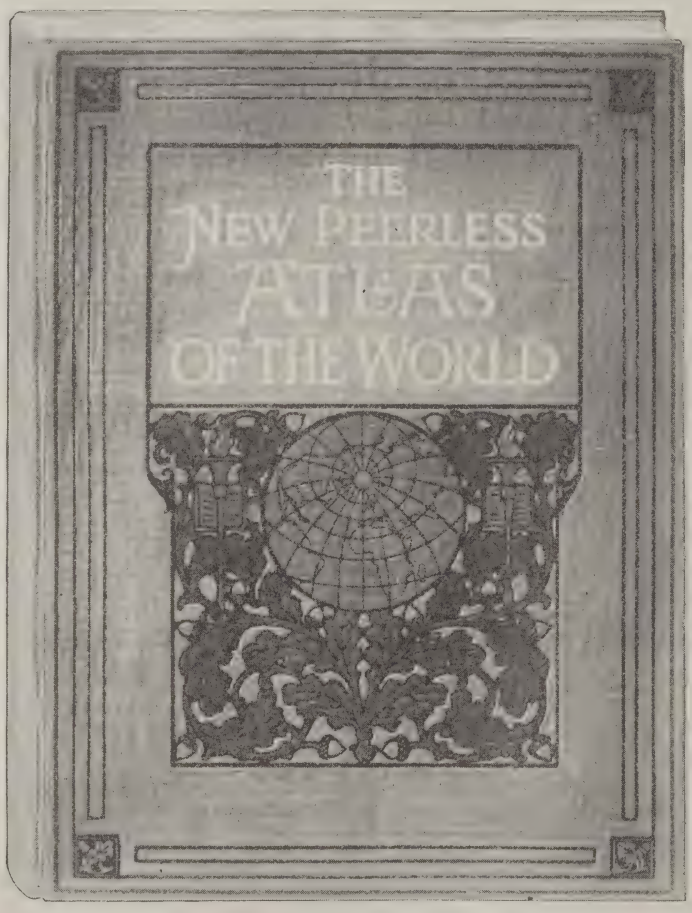
THE NEW PEERLESS ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THIS NEW ATLAS of the world offers a complete collection of accurate and detailed maps of every portion of the globe, accompanied by indexes which greatly enhance the value and usefulness of the maps. As an atlas suitable for home or office use, this book is one of the leaders, due to its authenticity and completeness.

THE MAPS show all major political divisions such as counties, departments and provinces. The place-names are given in type, graduated in size according to the relative importance of the place. Railway lines, rivers, canals and other geographical and commercial features are clearly shown. A large number of the maps cover double pages, while three and four pages are devoted to some of the most important divisions.



THE MARGINAL INDEXES printed on the margin of the map pages, give the index key for minor divisions, counties, cities and towns in alphabetical order. The convenience of this form of index will be appreciated because any division or place listed may be instantly located on the map without turning the page. To avoid crowding the margins, population figures are given in an elaborate index which follows the maps. This index contains over 100,000 references taken from latest United States census reports and other authentic sources.

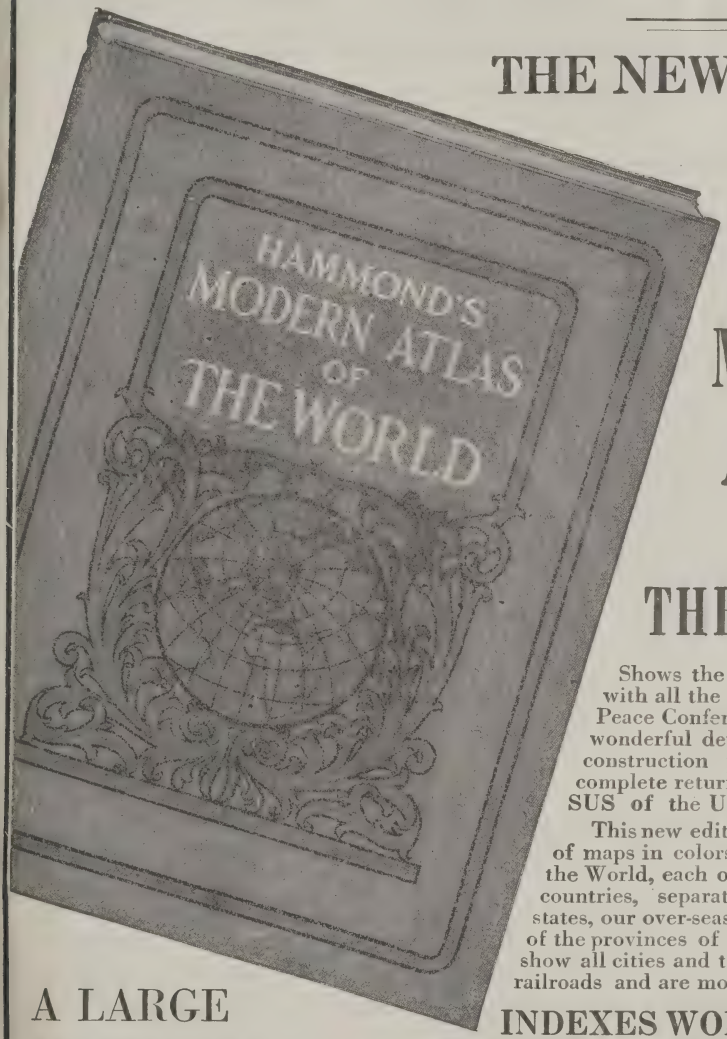
THE TEXT includes a most exhaustive index of the cities and towns of the United States with latest population figures and location of the place-names on the maps; a list of the principal cities of the world with latest population figures; a Parcel Post Guide naming all post offices of the United States and giving their unit number, together with a map showing units, zone scale and rates for packages of all sizes to any zone.

THE NEW PEERLESS ATLAS OF THE WORLD with its complete collection of maps and indexes makes a valuable addition to the library of any home, office or school. The binding is both beautiful and durable and the clearness of the maps is an outstanding key to its superiority. The book is printed in several colors on the best grade of high-finish paper, and measures when closed 10¼ x 13⅝ inches, with over 230 pages. Bound in cloth with attractive cover design and lining sheets.

PRICE $5.50

An Up-to-To-day Atlas Indispensable

A good up-to-date Atlas is the most vitally necessary of all reference books in the home or office. It is impossible, with an old Atlas published before or during the war, to follow events in the world you are living in to-day. New States have been created and the boundaries of old ones have been extensively changed. Intelligent understanding of momentous, history-making events which crowd the newspapers every day, is impossible without new large-scale maps for frequent reference.



THE NEW CENSUS EDITION OF HAMMOND'S MODERN ATLAS OF THE WORLD

Shows the world as it is to-day, with all the changes made by the Peace Conference Treaties and the wonderful developments of the reconstruction period, including the complete returns of the 1920 CENSUS of the UNITED STATES.

This new edition contains 128 pages of maps in colors covering all parts of the World, each of the continents, all countries, separate maps of our own states, our over-seas possessions and each of the provinces of Canada. These maps show all cities and towns, all counties, all railroads and are most complete in detail.

A LARGE HANDSOME BOOK

Substantially bound in cloth, containing nearly two-hundred pages, 10¼ x 13½ inches, with 128 pages of maps in five colors. It is brim full of just the kind of information you want—to-day, to-morrow—every day. You need the book for yourself; you need it for your children.

PRICE, $3.00

INDEXES WORTH HAVING

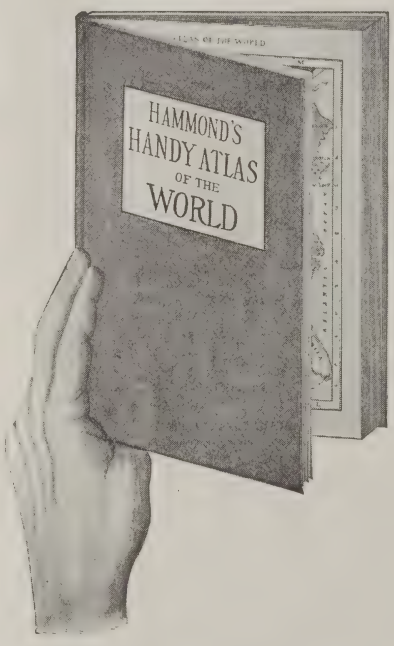
On the margin of each map is an index of places and political divisions. This quick reference feature is invaluable to the busy man or woman, because it enables you to spot a location instantly, without turning the page. More complete indexes, naming, locating and giving the new population figures of every incorporated city, town and village in the United States and lists of the principal foreign cities and towns are given in the forty-eight page section following the maps.

Each day brings news which cannot be clearly understood without referring to a good map.

No one can intelligently read his daily paper without a reference book such as this new atlas.

Hammond's Handy Atlas of the World

Is the most recent and authoritative, and, therefore, the most reliable atlas of its size published



It contains a new series of ACCURATE AND COMPLETE MAPS, beautifully printed in colors. There are in this collection separate maps of each state, territory, and insular possession of the United States; of each province in Canada; of each country of Europe, and general maps of all other portions of the globe.

In the maps of our states and territories, and of the provinces of Canada, RAILROADS ARE NAMED, and stations are shown, in a very complete manner. These and all other details are brought down to as recent date as in any of the more expensive atlases.

Alphabetically arranged lists of cities give the LATEST POPULATION STATISTICS

The maps in this work are not only new and reliable, but they are legible. Every name is lettered in clean-cut type; no indistinct hand-lettering is used. High-finish paper made expressly for this book is used throughout.

Many, if not most, low-priced atlases are made up of old plates, all but worthless in this era of rapid changes:

OUR PLATES ARE NEW, UP-TO-DATE, AND SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT.

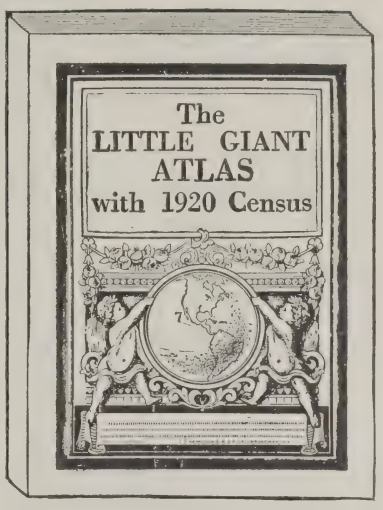
Contains 130 pages. Size, when closed, 6x8 inches.

Silk finished, red cloth, ... $ .75

A New and Valuable Hand-Book!

The LITTLE GIANT ATLAS

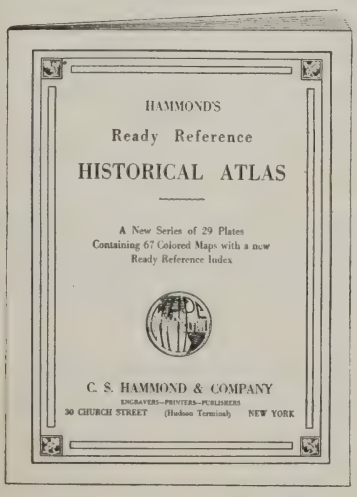
With 1920 Census



CONTAINS separate full-page maps of each state and territory of the Union, the provinces of Canada, all continents, and the more important countries of the World, with latest population figures, including the New States of Europe. The maps are printed in colors; show railroads, canals, and all cities and towns of importance. Lists of Principal Cities of the World, with latest population figures, including the 1920 census of United States, tables of distances, etc., supplement the maps and make this a most satisfactory hand-book of geographical facts. It is of convenient size for quick, easy reference; its price is so low that anyone can afford to own it.

Size 6x8 inches, 130 pages, heavy board binding. Price 50 cents.

A New Publication for the Student



Hammond's READY REFERENCE HISTORICAL ATLAS

THE Ready Reference Historical Atlas contains a new collection of reliable historical maps, affording the student of history an invaluable reference work at a low price.

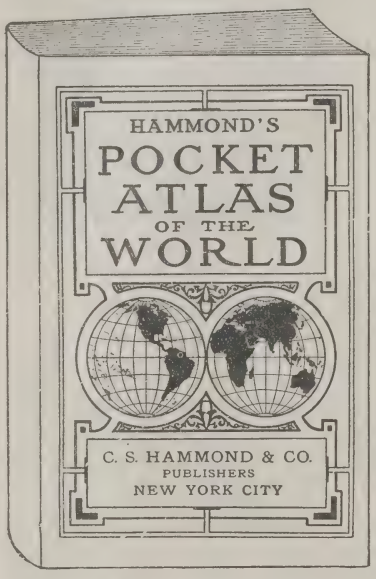
The contents of this book include over 70 maps illustrating different parts of the world from the time of the Chaldeans in 3800 B. C. down to the present day. There are maps of the ancient empires of Babylonia, Persia and Syria and the Roman Empire, maps of the Holy Lands, ancient Greece and Italy with plans of the ancient cities and maps illustrating the changes in Europe down to the close of the Great War. There are also detailed maps of the Western Front showing the several battle lines. The various periods in the history of England, France, Poland and Italy are portrayed by groups of maps. The history of the United States is illustrated by a series of maps showing each period, from the days of the earliest explorers and grants down to the present time.

The maps are accompanied by a valuable index which enables one to locate instantly any tribe, region or country shown in this collection.

Size 10¼ x 13½ inches, 32 pages, board binding. Price 75 cents.

HAMMOND'S
POCKET ATLAS OF THE WORLD

Thin Paper Edition



SIZE 4 x 6⅝ INCHES

This is the latest and most satisfactory small atlas published and will be appreciated by many owners of larger and more cumbersome atlases as well as those who have need only for an atlas of diminutive size.

MAPS—The maps in this wonderful little atlas show the new world as it is today with all of the new states and other changes brought about by the World War and the Peace Conferences. There are double page maps of all grand divisions, countries, our own states and the Canadian provinces. The maps of our country show railroads with their names, while those of foreign countries show the railroads without names. All of the maps are remarkably legible and unusually comprehensive for plates of such convenient size.

TEXT—The text features, including lists of cities with population figures, are compiled from the latest and most authentic sources available.

BINDING—This book is bound in a stiff cloth cover, trimmed flush with edges of sheets, and corners are rounded. An attractive cover design is stamped in colored ink on outside of front cover. It may also be had in flexible leatherette.

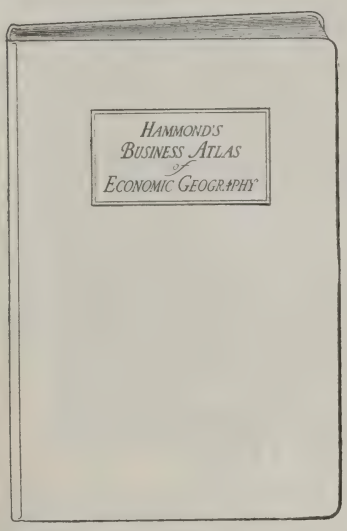
AN ENTIRELY NEW PRODUCTION

HAMMOND'S

Business Atlas of Economic Geography



THE maps in this new work will aid in keeping one's fingers on the pulse of the world and prove a fine corrective of parochialism. They present in a concise and graphic way information not readily secured elsewhere. Nothing is of greater importance to the student of geography than the connection between such phenomena as climate, temperature, rainfall, vegetation, and relief of the land.

PHYSICAL MAPS show the elevation of the land and the depths of the ocean by different gradations of tint, while isothermal lines for January and July connect places having the same average temperature. The effects of elevation and proximity to water upon temperature are apparent.

CLIMATIC MAPS show the summer and winter rainfall, atmospheric pressure and the prevailing winds.

ECONOMIC MAPS locate the industrial districts, the productive and the non-productive areas. The agricultural and mineral products are indicated by initials and symbols.

VEGETATION MAPS show in different colors the prevailing types of natural vegetation-forests, grass-lands, deserts tundras, etc.

POPULATION MAPS show the density of population by colors and the more important towns by heavy black dots.

POLITICAL MAPS show the boundaries and railroads. ¶ Additional and unusual features are language maps, racial maps and oil and gas maps. ¶ Bound in flexible leatherette. Size, 9½ x 6½ inches. 96 pages. Price, $2.00.

MODEL ATLAS

Contains sixteen relief and thirty-two political maps and diagrams printed in colors, together with an index of the principal cities, rivers, mountains, islands, etc. The relief maps photographed from models and printed in sepia and blue appear on pages opposite the political maps. This small school atlas shows the territorial adjustments of the various Peace Treaties. Bound in flexible board covers. Sixe 7½x9 inches. 52 pages. Price, 75 cents.

VISUAL CONTOUR ATLAS

Contains fifty-eight colored maps and diagrams together with an index of the principal cities, rivers, mountains, islands, etc. The contoured maps are printed on pages opposite the political maps. Special maps showing temperature, rainfall and regional vegetation. The boundaries shown are the new ones determined by the various Peace Treaties. Bound in flexible board covers. Size, 7¼ x 9 inches. 52 pages. Price, 75 cents.

HAMMOND'S NEW HISTORICAL ATLAS
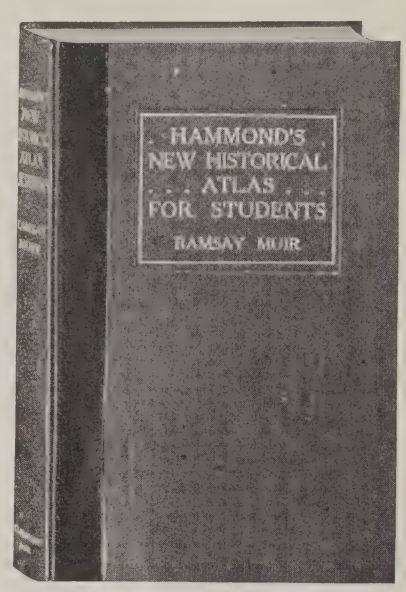
FOR STUDENTS



The study of Modern History, whether American, English or European, has long been handicapped by the non-existence of a carefully produced historical atlas, covering the whole ground and issued at a price which will place it within the reach of all students. This new atlas, therefore, endeavors to fill this gap. No pains have been spared to achieve this end; every map has been specially drawn and engraved and the entire work has been prepared under the supervision of Ramsay Muir, M.A., Professor of Modern History in the University of Liverpool, England.

This new Historical Atlas numbers in its contents 65 double-page plates, 7¾ x 9½ inches, containing 154 colored maps and diagrams, an introduction of 62 pages, illustrated by 43 maps and plans in black and white and an index of over six thousand names.

SOME OF THE FEATURES WHICH DISTINGUISH THE HAMMOND HISTORICAL ATLAS

¶ Great emphasis is placed upon the physical basis of historical geography. A series of physical maps has been included, carefully designed to show the geography of all the principal areas of historical importance. These maps are placed in proximity to groups of other maps of the same area so that the influence of the build of a country upon its history will be more easily made manifest to the student.

¶ Great care has been taken to avoid a confusing multiplicity of names on the maps; only those names which are likely to be useful to the student have been inserted, giving the maps a clear, legible appearance.

¶ The introduction contains a series of comments upon each of the maps in turn, which will be found of great assistance to the teacher. These bring out the influence of geography upon history and the reasons for rapid changes in political geography which has especially marked certain periods of the world's history.

¶ The engraving and printing leave nothing to be desired, the color work being particularly well executed.

¶ Especial attention must be called to the beautiful binding of the Historical Atlas. Bound in durable cloth of an attractive red shade, with side and back stamps in gold, the book presents a strikingly handsome appearance.

Size of the book, closed, 5¾ inches wide, 8¾ inches long, and 1½ inches thick.

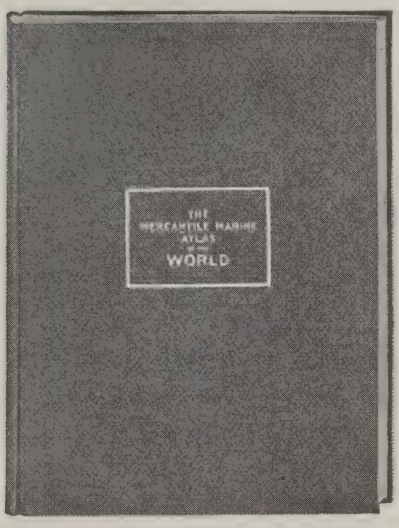
THE MERCANTILE MARINE ATLAS OF THE WORLD

AN INVALUABLE work of reference for ship owners, ship brokers, marine insurance companies and all interested in the maintenance and extension of our merchant marine. It should find a permanent place in every business house and library.



SOME OF THE FEATURES OF THE MERCANTILE MARINE ATLAS

This cyclopedia of marine affairs numbers in its contents over two-hundred charts and plans, tables of twelve-thousand distances between ports, national and mercantile flags, lists of United States and British Consulates, a complete index of twenty thousand ports, etc., etc.

The steamer routes shown correspond exactly with the courses followed, and distances have been most carefully calculated. Mail routes are distinguished by red lines, the time occupied and the distance in miles being given. Telegraph cables, wireless stations, danger points, lighthouses, lightships, coaling stations, oiling stations and naval stations are located. The through railway lines, canals and navigable rivers are shown.

A large number of inset plans show the relative extent and harbor accommodation of the principal seaports of the world, also the separate docks, and the depth of the water in the channels by which they are approached.

The Physical Geography of the oceans has been exhaustively shown in a series of maps embracing charts of the winds, ocean currents, co-tidal lines, depth of water, visibility of land, etc., etc.

There is a Speed, Time and Distance Graph which enables one to make accurate and rapid computations by a very ingenious method.

Size of book closed, 15½ inches wide, 21½ inches long and 1½ inches thick. Size of double page maps, 30 x 20 inches.

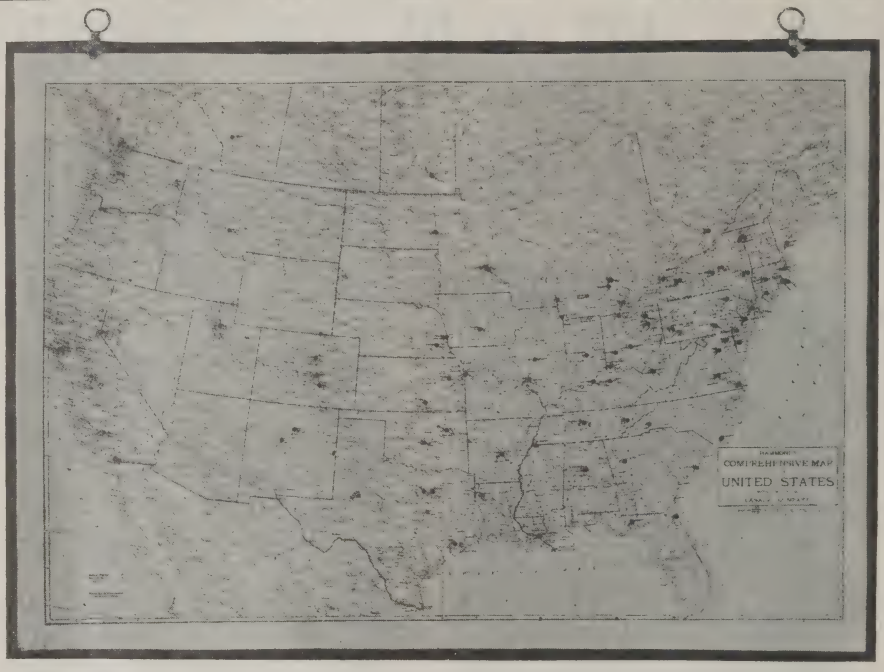
COMPREHENSIVE MAP OF THE UNITED STATES



A COMMERCIAL MAP RIGHT IN SIZE FOR THE BUSY MAN—SIZE 38 x 25 INCHES

THIS map is just right in size and subject matter for the use of the man of affairs who wishes to have in portable form a comprehensive view of the commercial centers and principal transportation routes of the entire continental portion of the United States and the adjacent parts of Canada and Mexico. It is not overloaded with detail or marred by the excessive use of color but portrays in most legible form, the information about "high spots," railroad lines, etc. needed by every executive and sales manager. When mounted on compo-board with edges bound and rings attached as is shown in the above illustration, it becomes at once a wall map, a miniature "map tack system" and a handy desk map as well.

Cities and towns are shown in black, the size of type indicating the relative importance of places, so that the larger commercial places in any state or province may be readily selected.

Railroads are shown and named in a separate color, and even in the most congested regions these lines of communication are clearly portrayed. State boundaries are shown in a light border tint and the interior of each state is uncolored. This layout permits of advantageous use of colored marking by crayon or water colors for the separation of territorial limits or the employment of map tacks. In the assignment of sales territory and sales routing work, this map mounted on compo-board is unexcelled. In sheet form it is just right to fit under a glass-covered desk-top; folded in pocket form, it is indispensable to the traveler. The map may also be had mounted on cloth with wooden rollers top and bottom.

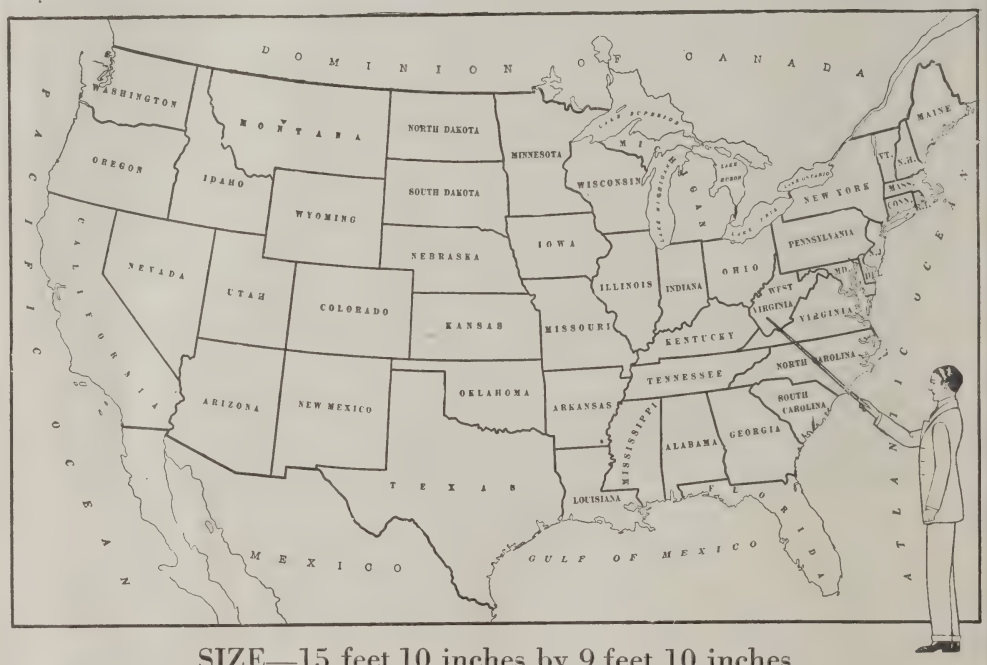
RAILWAY SYSTEM
MAP OF THE
UNITED STATES
and CANADA



SIZE—15 feet 10 inches by 9 feet 10 inches

This new product of cartographic skill is a GREAT map—great in conception, dimensions, utility and value. Its proportions are conveyed in the illustration above by a comparison with the man holding a three-foot pointer.

Engraved on a scale of 16 miles to the inch, the beautiful map locates and names in clear bold type practically every trade center of even the slightest importance.

The railroads are named and are shown in different colors and symbols in such a manner that no two railroads in the same state appear in the same tint or with the same distinguishing marks. Each of the great trunk lines and other through routes are uniformly colored throughout the entire map. The coloring is most harmonious and attractive.

This feature makes it easy to trace each railroad line, to note its stations and connections, and hence to determine the best routing for freight or passenger transportation.

Although the detail is very complete, there is no crowding of place names, and there is absolute uniformity as regards the selection of towns included. For instance, no town of 500 was included until every town of larger size in the state had been inserted. The clearness of the map is further promoted by the omission of the county boundaries and mountain ranges, which are not essential on a railway system map. The state boundaries are tinted, while the water is shown in blue. The map is down to date in every particular.

American men of commercial enterprises have long needed a large map of this nature—one which shows the railway systems of the United States clearly and effectively, and on large enough scale to trace the routes of salesmen—one which omits all non-essential detail, and gives the place names in bold lettering that can be easily read.

An extremely desirable feature of this splendid outfit is the fact that it is available in sections and in a variety of styles of mounting. If the boundaries of a sales organization extend only to the Mississippi River, that portion of the map can be bought. The fact that the map can be procured in its entirety, in the ten regular sections, or by the square foot, and in several styles of mounting for each, makes it conform to the needs of every business.

NEW ROAD MAPS

On this new series of maps, the automobile routes are shown very clearly. The good roads are distinguished by color from the fair and poor ones, and those on the scales of one or two miles to the inch, name the principal highways. The maps are latest and most authentic, for they are based on the last reports of State Highway Commissions and information supplied by Touring Clubs as well as recent government and private surveys. An explanation of the numbers and letters in parentheses used in list below is given at the bottom of this list.

THE UP-TO-DATE
REVERSIBLE MAP OF

UNITED STATES and the WORLD

WITH INDEX GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD and
1920 CENSUS OF UNITED STATES

In these new maps many of the countries and states appear on as large a scale as in the average atlas—in fact, it might be described as AN ATLAS ALWAYS OPEN AT THE RIGHT PAGE. It shows the NEW WORLD; the World of New States, New Boundaries, New Markets, Trade Routes and Opportunities.

THE INDEXED MAP OF THE UNITED STATES

This is the ideal map of our own country, showing clearly the geographical facts we need to consult nearly every day. It is not a jumbled mass of minor detail, but a clean-cut and legible presentation of the information we need. Cities and towns of importance are shown in large lettering; railroads are shown and named, these transportation routes being in a separate printing of carmine so that they interfere not at all with the place names. On the margins are printed a new READY REFERENCE INDEX, naming and giving the 1920 census figures of every city and town having 1,000 or more population arranged alphabetically by states. This index also gives the PARCEL POST unit of each place, which, used in connection with the accompanying rate map. enables one to determine readily and accurately the postage rate on any mailable package between any of the post-offices.

THE NEW WORLD MAP WITH ITS INDEX - GAZETTEER

On the reverse side of the sheet is printed a new map of the whole World as it is to-day, with all of the changes in Europe, Asia and Africa. Colonial powers are separately colored. Mandatory States are distinguished. Time throughout the World is shown. High-powered wireless stations, and mail and other steamship routes with distances in nautical miles are shown. Principal through railroads are shown, including the new transcontinental line across Australia, the latest extensions of the Cape to Cairo route, etc.

THE INDEX--GAZETTEER names and gives marginal index-references for every country, state, city, town, island, river, lake, mountain, etc. shown on the map; and furthermore, it gives brief gazetteer facts about each of these, areas and populations of countries and states; height of land; length of rivers with navigable portions; areas and depths of oceans; populations of cities, etc.

Both maps are fully and artistically colored. Produced from new plates with large legible lettering, on heavy long-fibered stock. Edges are bound with linen and have wooden mouldings at top and bottom ready to hang on wall.

Size 42 x 55 inches. Price $3.00

NEW AUTHENTIC SERIES POCKET MAPS

A reliable collection of POCKET MAPS of the Countries and principal Geographic Divisions of the earth is always in demand, and because of their up-to-dateness, general accuracy, and moderate price the Authentic Series of Pocket Maps of the World have enjoyed a popularity exceeded by no other line.

These maps, covering on a large scale every important portion of the civilized globe, are based on the most recent surveys and other reliable data, while the greatest care and precision have been exercised in their engraving and printing. Four distinguishing features mark their preparation:

1. MINUTE DETAIL. Probably no other maps contain this essential feature in such a degree of completeness. The political divisions of countries, states, principalities, provinces, and other subdivisions are shown; all railways are accurately and distinctly delineated; and the principal means of transportation and communication, including roads and submarine telegraph lines, are given.

2. ABSOLUTE CLEARNESS. By means of careful preparation and the use of distinct lettering throughout, all confusion and illegibility have been avoided, so that any desired information can be obtained without the slightest difficulty.

3. LARGE SCALE. The large scale of these maps materially increases their legibility and wealth of information, and especially appeals to tourists and travelers, as well as all others who require full and accurate delineation.

4. DISTINCT COLORING. The boundaries of all political divisions are indicated by light tints, which give the maps a strikingly beautiful appearance, without obliterating any of the place names.

The compactness of these maps in their light blue cases adds to their general attractiveness and utility.

THREE NEW BUSINESS BOOKS

MODERN FOREIGN EXCHANGE

MONETARY SYSTEMS, INTRINSIC EQUIVALENTS AND COMMERCIAL RATES OF EXCHANGE OF ALL COUNTRIES AND THEIR RELATION TO UNITED STATES MONEY.

By V. GONZALES, Formerly Foreign Trade and Banking Advisor of the National Association of Manufacturers of the United States.

FOREIGN exchange is no longer a matter of concern to exchange dealers only. It is a subject of wide interest to all who have, or wish for, foreign business. It is necessary to know thoroughly all about other people's money and its relation to our money. Most treatises on foreign exchange are devoted more to the study of economic principles and history than to the description of money and exchange as regards International trade. In this handy volume facts are summarized and treated in a simple yet comprehensive form, permitting even those who have not had special preparation to readily understand them. It shows not only the intrinsic equivalents of all moneys with American money and vice versa, but also the maximum and minimum possible rates of exchange with all countries, and affords all the knowledge that business men need on the subject.

Philips' New Handy General Atlas

A NEW ENGLISH ATLAS

Including 200 pages of maps and letterpress, illustrating the birth of the League of Nations, the new countries of Europe, the mandatory states and new boundaries as laid down by the Peace Conference. Travel, Aeronautical and Communications Maps. Town and Port Plans, etc. Descriptive Gazetteer of over 100,000 names.

This atlas shows, and in great detail, the final results of the deliberations of the Peace Conference in regard to territorial changes and the creation of National and Mandatory States. To secure the requisite amount of detail, the general maps of the more important countries of the world are supplemented by large-scale sectional maps, divided into sections; simplicity of reference being ensured by small key-maps printed on the back of each sheet, showing the section it represents, and the positions of all the adjoining sections with a reference to their place in the atlas. Many of these sectional maps are devoted to the Countries forming the League of Nations, and separate plates are given of the more important "National" States which have been carved out of the old monarchies of central and eastern Europe, and those countries which have been placed under the mandate of nations appointed by the League.

The value of the atlas as a work of reference is greatly enhanced by the exhaustive gazetteer which accompanies it. The gazetteer, in addition to supplying accurate and up-to-date information of the 100,000 places it describes, gives also their latitudes and longitudes, and the number of the map on which they may be found.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE

FOR THE SCHOOL AND LIBRARY

THIS latest addition to our large line of globes is designed to fill a special need which has been felt for a long time. This globe which shows the height of land and depth of water as well as the political boundaries, is being extensively adopted for school and library use.

THE NEW 12-INCH PHYSICAL GLOBE

The teaching of geography embraces a wider field to-day than ever before, and this globe has been designed to meet some of the new requirements not shown on the ordinary globe. Physical features are especially prominent. The height of land from below sea level to 12,000 feet and over is shown by means of seven different tints of brown and green, and the depth of water down to 3,000 fathoms and over is shown by five distinct tints of blue. The coast-lines, river courses and lakes are well defined in a blue tint and the principal railways, cities and towns and all names are in black. Ocean distances aregiven, currents named and the direction of their flow is indicated by arrows. The political boundaries are distinctly over-printed in carmine and embrace all of the latest changes.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE IS MADE ONLY IN THE POPULAR 12 INCH SIZE

THE MERCHANT SHIPPER'S GLOBE

FOR THE OFFICE AND LIBRARY

THIS globe embraces many new and novel features heretofore not embodied in a similar work. The map is entirely new and gives all the latest boundaries throughout the world, including the new boundaries in Europe, the Mandatories in Africa and the Pacific, etc. These boundaries are shown in a distinct tint, thus eliminating the heavy colors so objectionable on a high class globe. The ball, 18 inches in diameter and surrounded by a hand-cut brass meridian, is mounted in a beautiful polished solid mahogany stand. In the center of the stand, below the ball, is an accurate compass 8½ inches in diameter and covered by a glass plate. The horizon circle surrounding the globe is in colors and shows all the divisions with greatest precision. On the top of the ball is a brass hour circle which enables the user to tell the exact time of any place in the world. Ocean distances between ports are given in nautical miles and distances between principal cities are given in statute miles. Cities, towns, railroads and rivers are also shown. The finish on the ball is of such high quality as to permit its being washed with a damp cloth. The height from the floor to the top of the brass meridian is 45 inches and from the floor to the horizon circle is 34½ inches. Only the highest grade of workmanship is put into this beautiful and useful globe and it will make a worthy addition to the finest office or library.

COMPARISON OF SIZES

(8, 12 and 18-inch sizes)

Though not usually known, the superficial area of an 18-inch globe is almost twelve times that of an 8-inch globe and more than three times that of a 12-inch globe. On account of the clearness of the engraving which is correspondingly larger, we strongly recommend the 18-inch globe for general purpose.

FULL MOUNTED HIGH STAND GLOBES

Library Globes Nos. 12 and 18

The No. 12 is 12 inches in diameter with heavy stand; 30 inches to top of horizon and 38 inches extreme height. Stand and fittings plated in antique copper, highly finished; guaranteed never to tarnish. The superiority of this globe is apparent at first glance, and it will make a handsome ornament in the finest library.

The number 18 is the same as number 12, but 18 inches in diameter. Stand 34 inches high to top of horizon and 45 inches extreme height.

CELESTIAL GLOBES

SHOWING the configuration of the stars and the constellations. The stars are shown up to the ninth magnitude on these globes. This is an important thing to be taken into consideration when ordering celestial globes. The mythological figures are printed in gold while the stars printed in white against a deep blue back-ground, present a very pleasing and striking appearance.

CELESTIAL GLOBES furnished in the same mountings as TERRESTRIAL GLOBES at 20% addition in price, and are supplied only in 12 inch and 18 inch sizes.

Mounted on terrestrial pole unless otherwise ordered.

SIX INCH WIRE STAND GLOBE

This popular selling small globe has many uses. It is often used in geography classroom work; each pupil having one on which to follow the demonstrations by the instructor on one of our larger globes.

It is used by children when they are first learning about geography, and it is in this respect as useful and instructive as a larger globe.

Mounted on a very substantial wire stand, it presents a good appearance and the map shows all the principal cities and divisions and latest geographical changes. The surface is varnished similar to our more expensive globes. Each globe is packed in a separate carton.

PRICE $1.10

The Comparative Series of Large Schoolroom Maps

THIS REDUCED PHOTOGRAPHIC FACSIMILE SHOWS THE COMPARATIVE SERIES MAP OF THE WORLD IN OUR "UNIT" CASE. SIZE OF MAP, 80 x 63 INCHES. LENGTH OF CASE, 84 INCHES OVER ALL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Every teacher must have experienced the difficulty of obtaining a satisfactory Map of the World on a large scale for class use. Heretofore such maps have invariably been constructed either on a Globular Projection or upon that known as Mercator's. Both of these projections have their advantages, but are deficient in the following important respects:—

The Globular Projection shows the world in two separate Hemispheres side by side, and, whilst it is a useful method of comparing the relative sizes of the various land and sea areas, it is extremely puzzling for children to learn from such a map the relative positions of the different countries and the means of communication between them. Mercator's Projection satisfactorily overcomes the difficulty as regards relative position and means of communication, but is extremely misleading as to the relative sizes of the various countries.

To overcome these objections THE COMPARATIVE MAP OF THE WORLD has been constructed on what is known as the Equivalent Projection. This projection, although rapidly growing in favor with leading cartographers, has never before been employed on so large a scale for educational use, although it is pre-eminently suited for teaching purposes.

It is the only projection in which the Equivalent Areas or correct sizes of all parts of the world are preserved in combination with their relative position to each other; and it is the possession of these two important features which has led to its adoption in the Comparative Series of Large School-room Maps.

A glance at the accompanying reduced facsimile of the map will show that the entire earth is represented in the shape of an ellipse, the major axis of which represents the equator, whilst its minor axis represents the central meridian. All other meridians of longitude appear as ellipses, whilst the parallels of latitude appear as parallel straight lines, the intervals between them being regulated in such manner as to ensure Equivalent Areas. To emphasize the advantages the Equivalent Projection possesses over other methods of representing the globe on a flat surface, and to give Teachers the material for explaining the elements of Map Projection, inset maps of the World in Hemispheres and on Mercator's Projection have been added, together with maps on a Polar Projection, giving the Arctic and Antarctic Regions.

The Comparative Series of Large Schoolroom Maps

IT is an undoubted fact that the most serviceable maps for class teaching purposes are those that illustrate clearly, and at a glance, both Political and Physical Features. This New Series will be found to possess this combination, and, in addition, to form an extremely attractive decoration for the schoolroom.

SPECIAL FEATURES

1.—Physical Features are especially prominent. The land is tinted according to its elevation, and the mountain ranges are printed in a different color. The coastline, river courses, lakes, etc., are well defined and printed in blue.

2.—Uniformity of Scale and Comparison of Areas:—To emphasise the comparative areas of the various regions of the world, a uniform scale and equivalent projections have been used for the continental maps.

3.—The political boundaries are clearly shown by red lines, the towns by red circles, varying in size according to importance, and the railways by black lines. The principal ocean routes with their distances are also given.

4.—The lettering is well executed, and sufficiently large to be readable by all in an ordinary sized class-room.

5.—Great care has been bestowed upon the selection and spelling of names. All overcrowding has been avoided. Nothing unnecessary has been inserted. and nothing necessary omitted.

COMPARATIVE SERIES MAPS OF BIBLE LANDS

TO understand the bible story a knowledge of the geography of bible lands is indispensable, and it is with the view of supplying the material for an accurate study of scripture history that the new COMPARATIVE SERIES OF BIBLE MAPS has been compiled. The maps are clearly drawn and attractively printed in colors, presenting graphically each phase of bible history. The series ends with a map of Modern Palestine, showing the modern identifications of the Biblical sites, and exhibiting by a system of contours and orographical coloring, those remarkable physical features of the Holy Land which have played so important a part in determining the history of the children of Israel.

1. The Distribution of the Nations

The first map of the series illustrates the book of Genesis, and shows the distribution after the flood of the descendants of Hem, Shem, and Japhet, according to the Biblical narrative.

2. Egypt, the Sinai Peninsula, and the Promised Land

Map 2 illustrates the book of Exodus, and especially the sojourn of the Israelites in the land of Egypt, their wanderings in the Desert, and their arrival in the land of Canaan. Fertile districts such as Lower Egypt and the Promised Land are distinguished by color from the tracts of arid desert through which the children of Israel journeyed for so many years.

3. Syria and Mesopotamia The Persian Empire

Sheet 3 contains two maps illustrating Old Testament history, especially those great kingdoms of ancient times—Chaldea, Assyria, Babylonia, Persia and Media, whither the children of Israel again and again were carried into captivity.

COMPARATIVE SERIES MAPS OF BIBLE LANDS

4. Canaan as divided among the Twelve Tribes

Map 4 illustrates the books of Joshua and Judges, and shows the division of the land of Canaan among the tribes of Israel, the position of the Levitical cities and of the cities of refuge. A plan of ancient Jerusalem is added, showing the gradual growth of the sacred city after its occupation by the children of Judah.

5. The Holy Land in the Time of the Kings

Map 5 illustrates the books of Samuel, the Kings and the Chronicles. It depicts the formation of the Hebrew kingdom under Saul and David, its vast extension to the Euphrates under the sway of Solomon, and its disruption into the kingdoms of Judah and Israel after his death.

6. Palestine in the Time of Christ

Map 6 illustrates the Gospel story. It exhibits the Holy Land as it existed at the time of the life of Christ, under the domination of the Romans. The familiar names of places visited by Jesus on his journeys through Galilee, Judea, and Samaria can be identified, and an enlargement of the environs of Jerusalem facilitates the study of the New Testament narrative, where it deals with the final tragedy in the life of the Saviour.

7. The Journeys of St. Paul
The Roman Empire

Sheet 7 contains two maps, the first illustrating more particularly the acts of the apostles and the epistles, and the second giving a general survey of the Roman empire as it existed at the birth of Christ. On the first map, the several journeys of the great missionary apostle are clearly indicated; also the positions of the early Christian churches.

8. Modern Palestine

Map 8 exhibits the striking physical characteristics of the Holy Land. It shows also the principal modern identifications of ancient sites; and both the ancient and modern means of communication, namely roads and roadways. A study of the physical features of Palestine is the only way to understand the bible narrative, and in this map we see how this little country, cleft from the sources of the Jordan to the Red Sea by a tremendous gorge or depression, and shut off from the outer world either by desert, by sea, or the snowcapped peaks of Hermon and of Lebanon, provided a fitting home for the "peculiar people," and the most perfect of birthplaces for the Christian religion.

GEOGRAPHICAL TERMS

A Splendid New Chart Illustrating Clearly, Concisely and Interestingly the Initiatory Steps in the Study of Geography.

The following subjects are illustrated in beautifully harmonizing colors:

1.—A Large Pictorial Landscape, Illustrating Graphically the Chief Features of Land and Water.
2.—A Large Map Corresponding With the Landscape, Illustrating the Various Geographical Definitions, Political and Physical.
3.—Picture of Schoolhouse, and Ground Plan of Same.
4.—Picture of Neighborhood Surrounding School, and Corresponding Map.
5.—Picture Illustrating Method of Ascertaining Direction by the Sun.
6.—Map of World, Illustrating Points of the Compass.
7.—Map of World, Showing Divisions of Land and Water, Zones, etc.
8.—The World in Space.

¶ It is suggested that the picture and the map be always taught together. When the children can recognize the course of the river on the picture they should trace it on the map. Afterwards the picture can be used as a blank map is used, i. e. for testing the knowledge of the class.

Points to Which Attention May Be Drawn.

¶ The clouds working up and covering the mountains; all except the high peak in the distance. The snow-covered mountain range and the glacier, the source of the river. Its unnavigable portion to the waterfall; below the waterfall boats can sail upon it. This part is called the lower river; the other the upper river. The valley through which the upper river runs has been worn wider by the rain and frost, and deeper by the river.

¶ The hills are barren, and on the lower ground are trees; firs in left hand corner, and a group of seven poplars on the bank of the stream.

¶ The old village nestles in a valley near the bridge, its church tower being plainly seen, while the new town with its docks and chimneys stands near the harbor. [Harbors were not safe in early days, sea robbers visited them, so towns were built far up the stream.]

¶ Across the plain a railway runs, keeping to the level ground but going as direct as possible.

¶ The breakwater is so arranged that the sea waves driven by the westerly winds shall not run up the harbor. There is smooth water and safe anchorage in the harbor. Breakwaters are built by man.

¶ The word Archipelago (pr. Arkipel′ago) is used to indicate either the water space in which there are islands, or the islands themselves.

¶ The rocks of the Peninsula Headland are of limestone, white and hard. The cliffs forming the Cape are of clay and are easily worn. The island is being gradually washed away by the sea.

MODEL RELIEF MAPS

A New Series for Class Demonstration

This cut shows the map of United States and Canada as it appears when mounted on Compo Board

THESE maps have been reproduced from carefully constructed models, and are printed in the finest style, the physical features being shown in a very realistic and striking manner. ¶ Drainage and all water is shown in blue, and land areas in sepia tint. ¶ They are an excellent substitute for, and in some respects preferable to relief models.

Drop Front Map Cabinet

THIS design fills the demand for an inexpensive cabinet, with large and varied capacity. It is made of well finished hard oak, with drop front hinged at bottom, and fitted with lock and key. When closed, the front fits snugly, making it dust-proof. Rollers are arranged as in the Roller Front Cabinet, one above the other, making a series of case sizes with capacities of four to twelve maps. Rollers are of the window shade type, and the operation of one does not interfere with that of the others. This popular design is recommended for its simple and sturdy construction, ease of operation, attractiveness, and also for small wall space required.

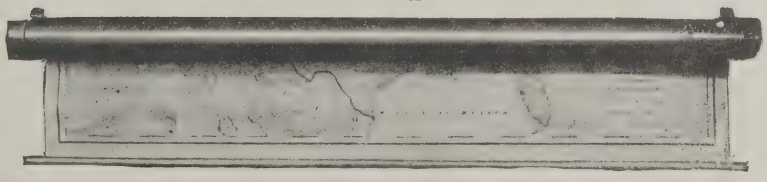
Steel Map Case



The Steel Map Case has more points in its favor than any other design for containing individual maps. It is made of heavy sheet steel, in a single piece, with edges turned over, japanned in dark green. When map is rolled up, the moulding on bottom fits snugly into slot, thereby making it dust-proof. Because of its construction, it is exceedingly strong, and so light that a child can easily carry the largest sizes, and, also takes up less room than any other unit. By removing cap at right end, adjustments may be made without the use of any tools. Being made of metal, it is not affected by moisture, or other climatic conditions. These unit cases may be hung one above the other, without interfering with the operation of any one.

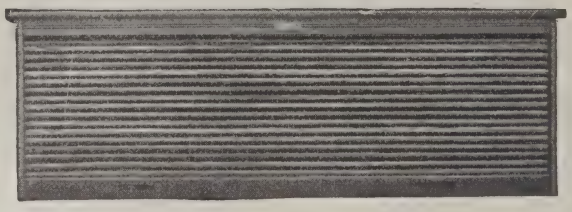
Roller Front Map Cabinet



A COMPARISON of all the map cases on the market, designed to contain and afford protection to the map when not in use, shows this cabinet is second to none. Equipped with a patented roller front, it is absolutely dust proof when closed. It accommodates the greatest number of maps in the least space, both when opened and closed, and because of its design and construction, it is the most attractive in appearance of any case on the market.

The roller front, sliding in grooves at the side, is similar to the ordinary roll top desk, moving easily up or down. And because of this feature it is seldom left open when not in use. When it is closed, it affords complete protection to the maps within.

Maps are attached to rollers which are placed one above the other. This arrangement affords great freedom of movement, the maps moving up or down as easily as the common window shade. Cabinets can be furnished of several widths, with a capacity of four to twelve rollers.

The cabinet, made of finely finished hard oak is attractive in appearance, thereby being a handsome piece of office or school-room furniture.

Multiplex Wall Fixture

THIS outfit is a combined looseleaf, map and tack, and visible display system. The wings have steel channel frames, reinforced with steel rods electrically welded to frames. The body or "filler" of wings is composed of asphaltum compoboard, a specially constructed material which will take tacks readily and hold firmly when inserted. The frame is made of iron fastened to hardwood. When attached to the wall or post, the frame which works on a pivot permits all wings to swing around to one side, thus occupying the space of but one map. The main frame and wing frame are finished in ebony, harmonizing with any shade of office furniture. Each wing can readily be lifted out of the main frame, thus enabling the user to work on the map with more ease and comfort.

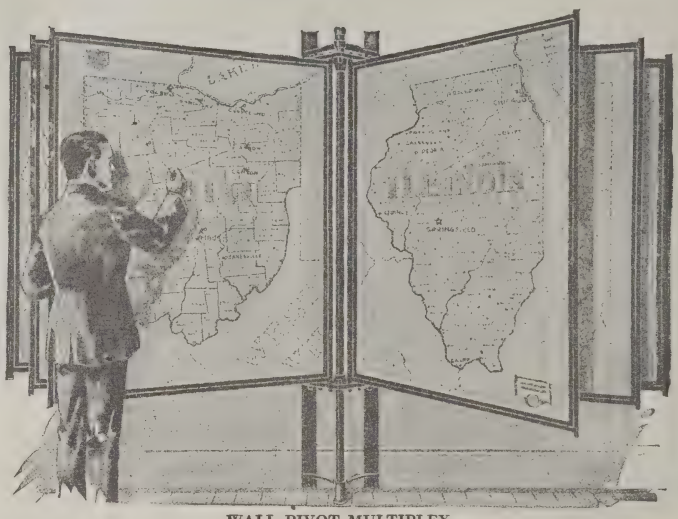
The Wall Pivot Multiplex

The Loose-Leaf Idea Applied to Large Maps

Makes Large Maps More Useful and Saves Space



WALL PIVOT MULTIPLEX

All wings of this fixture pivot or swivel from left to right or vice versa, and when not in use the wings can be compactly bunched together and closed flat against the wall.

The multiplex comes attached to two strips of hardwood ready for fastening to the wall.

The fixture is built of strong steel castings with one inch steel tubing upright extending to the floor around which the wings swing. All metal parts of the fixture are finished in hard baked black enamel.

The full capacity of the WALL PIVOT MULTIPLEX is ten wings in the two sizes given below; wings have half-inch tubing frames, electrically welded where joined at corners. The "filler" of the wings is wood composition board, especially adapted for the use of map tacks.

Prices include main frame with a capacity for ten wings:

Map Routing System

The Recording of Business Operations

THIS system is devised for the purpose of making and keeping records of the conditions of out-of-town business, over-coming the use of cards and other data which are so easily lost. It consists of a cabinet of four or more shallow drawers, occupying but 29 x 21 inches of floor space. In each of the drawers is pasted a flat map of one of the states, in which operations are conducted, and tacks with colored heads are stuck in the towns and counties on the maps.

The Tack System

By means of tacks of different colors and sizes, the exact condition or classification of the business may be recorded. For instance, different colored tacks may be inserted in towns where prospective customers are reported, places well covered by local dealers, sections controlled by competitors, points condemned by bad or slow collections, territories allotted to agents, and towns to be visited by the traveling salesmen.

Routing Salesmen

Indeed, this latter use is one of the greatest time- and labor-saving features of the system. The movements of the different salesmen can be noted by the tacks; where they are at all times can be ascertained; their routes can be checked to see that all the towns are covered in the most economic manner; and their success or failure in each place recorded.

The Cabinets

The cabinets are constructed of the best quality of selected quartered oak, golden in shade, with panelled sides and solid cast brass combination name plate and drawer handle: altogether they are of such attractiveness as to appear well in the best furnished offices.

The drawers, $\frac{5}{8}$ inch deep, are made of three-ply basswood, a light, fibrous wood into which tacks may be inserted without the slightest difficulty. Each drawer weighs less than two pounds and may be removed from the cabinet and used on the desk or in the lap if desired.

The Maps

An index to the map of each state included in the cabinet accompanies same. This book includes the names of all places with their locations on the map and indicates the railroads and express company going to each town. The maps are printed in colors, are down-to-date, and complete in detail; each state occupies a single drawer with the following exceptions: New York, Pennsylvania, California, and Texas require two drawers each, and Maryland and Delaware are combined and fill but one drawer.

MAP TACKS

THERE is almost no limit to the possibilities for using these tacks on maps and diagrams to indicate special details. There is nothing more graphic or interesting than statistics represented by these indicators of attractive and well contrasted colors, which catch and hold the eye. They have been used in municipal budget and health exhibits to show, for instance, the proximity of houses and factories, the prevalence of certain diseases, and the comparison of present and proposed transit facilities. In business enterprises their uses are numerous and some of these have been mentioned in the description of the Map Routing Systems on another page.

BUBBLE BOOKS "that Sing"

By Ralph Mayhew and Burges Johnson—Pictures by Rhoda Chase

—selling again at the original price of $1.00 each

WHILE the present manufacturing cost of Bubble Books does not warrant this drastic cut in price—the second one in twelve months—it is made in anticipation of further reductions in the cost of labor, materials, and distribution, to occur during 1922.

The new price of $1.00 each for Bubble Books is effective now, and places these unique combinations of stories, pictures, verses and real Columbia records, within the reach of all.

Fourteen Bubble Books are now ready. Each one is different from all the others. They tell the story of a little boy who, with his magic bubble pipe, blows giant bubbles out of which come the little people in the story.

Little Jack Horner, Mary and Her Little Lamb, Little Boy Blue, and all the other characters that youngsters love are there to delight and amuse them—for the songs these little people sing are on the records—three of which come in the pages of each book.

You can get Bubble Books at any phonograph shop, book, toy or department store.

What a Great Novelist Thinks of Harper's Magazine

IN an address delivered at a luncheon in Indianapolis given by the Women's Press Club, Meredith Nicholson was moved to speak of HARPER'S MAGAZINE in terms of unusual praise. We are happy to reprint here this eminent novelist's spontaneous tribute to the Magazine, for the Editors feel that, aside from its complimentary references, it expresses with force and clearness what the aim of HARPER'S MAGAZINE has been and continues to be:

HARPER'S has kept faith with its own high standards through all the changes of public taste and feeling that have marked its long history. It is identified in my mind with the center table in my grandfather's house, and this agreeable association has been strengthened by an unbroken line of other happy memories. HARPER'S has concerned itself first and last with the best thought and highest endeavor of civilization. It has been one of the most potent of educational forces in this nation. Its tables of contents have been distinguished by a diversity of gifts, yet all animated by the same spirit. Whatsoever things have been clean and interesting and stimulating have found place in its pages. It has been a strong factor in the development of an American literature, much of which has first reached the public through its instrumentality. I never pick up a copy without something of the feeling I experience in greeting an old friend who arrives periodically in fine good humor to enlighten and entertain and amuse me, never to bore me or waste my time.

ALLEN'S SYNONYMS and ANTONYMS

By F. Sturges Allen, A.B., LL.B.

General Editor of "Webster's New International Dictionary"

For greater enjoyment in reading

Everyone who handles words with an appreciation of the importance of their shades of meaning—the lawyer, the author, the clergymen, business man, etc., —will want this book, by the editor of Webster's New International Dictionary. It contains thousands of words not contained in any other word book—synonyms and antonyms—as well as special notes of explanation which define clearly the more important and less easily understood distinctions between words; words are further characterized as slang, colloquial, formal, pedantic, etc. Special typography and page arrangements make this book easy for the eye—and various new features render it quick for ready reference.

For greater confidence in writing

Here is a book of synonyms which does not group together in haphazard fashion the synonyms for the various meanings of a word, presupposing on the part of the reader a selective instinct for the special word he needs; in this book wherever the basic meaning or the application of a group of synonyms for a given word will help the reader to a correct choice, this is briefly given. The same is true of the antonyms: this volume not only answers the frequent need for an antonym, a word directly opposite in meaning to a given one, but groups together the antonyms for the various meanings of that word. Among the other special features of this new book are a simple system of cross references which saves the reader time and trouble.

INDIAN LITERATURE

BEAVER, THE PAWNEE INDIAN. By S. M. Barrett. The story of a Pawnee Indian Boy, written by an author who has lived among Indians all his life. This book contains the accurate history of the famous tribe of Pawnee Indians and portrays their tribal customs, manners, occupations and every-day life. It is being cordially received by little folks and "young" old folks everywhere. Many school systems throughout the United States have adopted it as a supplementary reader in the third and fourth grades. Bound in cloth and illustrated with Indian scenes. About 100 pages. Price 75c.

SHINKAH, THE OSAGE INDIAN. By S. M. Barrett. A companion story of Beaver, the Pawnee Indian. Filled with Indian folk-lore and written in a masterful style, this book already occupies an enviable place in American literature. Children find it so absorbing they are loth to lay it down before reading it through. Bound in cloth; 114 pages. Price 75c.

TALES OF THE BARK LODGES. By Hen-Toh (Wyandot). A collection of Wyandot (Indian) legends written by an Indian in the full richness of Indian dialect, and portraying the emotions, feelings and subtle humor of the Indian as could not be done in English. The legends, which are replete with animal action and humorous episodes, were handed down to Hen-Toh by his relatives who brought them from their lakeside dwellings through their various wanderings across the northern states to Oklahoma. This striking contribution to American literature is proving very popular with both children and adults everywhere. Bound in cloth and beautifully illustrated by an Indian artist. About 130 pages. Price $1.50.

YONDOO - SHAH - WE - AH (NUBBINS). By Hen-Toh (Wyandot). An artistic volume of beautiful Indian verse, written by an Indian, largely in Indian dialect.

The book is a veritable succession of delights. Not only is it replete with the quaint philosophy, subtle wit and hidden humor of the Indian, but the wonders of nature are pictured in such realistic colors that one is made to feel the warm breezes of spring as she comes "all dres' up in fine white buckskins" or to shivver at the icy touch of "ol' Wintah" as he stalks forth from the "lan' of Great White Rabbit." Again one is impressed with the quiet solitude of unfrequented woods, is led along the secret trails of the "ol' huntin' groun' " where coyotes yelp with voices "broken, sharp and clear," is invigorated by the undiluted fragrance of "feath'ry flowers" and is thrilled with the tug of a "big one bass" while down on "riva' bank waitin' and wishin' ". And at eventide when the shadows "eastward crawl" and the "western sky-tints pale" one can hear the soothing strains of a Mojave lullaby or the crooning notes of a Wyandot cradle song as the "happy cricket chirps her merry lay."

Printed on fine rough-finished paper and beautifully bound in cloth. Each page illustrated with unusually artistic drawings from Indian life. Publication date, September 1, 1922. Price $2.00.

BOOKS ON OIL AND GAS

OIL AND GAS IN THE MID-CONTINENT FIELD. By L. C. Snider, Ph. D. A complete and comprehensive treatment of the scientific phases of the oil business throughout the mid-continent field, including Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. This book contains the basic information of the oil business, beginning with the elements of geology and treating every phase of the oil industry in logical order through the manufacturing and marketing of petroleum products. It is written in language which is accurately scientific but not too technical. Dr. Snider for some years was assistant director of the Oklahoma geological survey, is author of "Petroleum & Natural Gas in Oklahoma," and is now chief geologist for the Empire Gas & Fuel Company. Bound in cloth and fully illustrated. Price $12.50.

THE OIL OPERATOR IN OKLAHOMA. By Rice & Lyons. A practical legal handbook for producers, refiners, and pipe-line companies of the mid-continent field, and a volume of valuable, general information concerning this important field for oil men everywhere. The book discusses the legal phases of the oil industry and clearly sets forth the law in the mid-continent field governing the acquisition of leases, waste of oil and gas, sale of crude oil, transportation of crude oil by pipe lines, the sale of oil properties, etc. It also carries full details relative to the incorporation of oil concerns. Bound in Buckram. Publication date, October 1, 1922. Price $10.00.

MUSIC BOOKS

THEORY OF MUSIC FOR HIGH SCHOOLS. By Holmberg & Giard. A textbook in the theory of music suitable for use in high schools. It bridges the gap between the extremes of primary or elementary theory and advanced study such as should be expected from mature students in conservatories. The book has been approved by the Oklahoma State Board of Eduction as a textbook for use in high schools. And was used last year in more than thirty states. The authors are among the most widely known musical authorities in the Southwest. Fredrik Holmberg is dean of the school of fine arts at the University of Oklahoma and Charles F. Giard is professor of piano and theory of music at the same institution. About 120 pages. Bound in cloth. Price $1.50.

OKLAHOMA COMMUNITY SONGS. By J. W. Scroggs. This is a most useful and serviceable collection of popular songs carefully adapted to school and community singing. In addition to 57 selections that have touched the hearts of all the people at all times and in every clime, this collection includes ten Oklahoma songs: "Oklahoma a Toast"; "Oklahoma Over All"; "Oklahoma First"; "Oklahoma"; "Oklahoma Song"; "Land of the Mistletoe"; "Oklahoma for Christ"; "A. & M. Song;" "Boomer Sooner"; and "Oklahoma U." A brief summary of the musical knowledge required for the songs in this collection is added, together with sixteen songs and exercises of the easiest character for the use of beginners. Approved for Oklahoma Schools. Price 25c per copy.

BOOKS ON OKLAHOMA HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT

LIGHTS ON OKLAHOMA HISTORY. By Charles Evans, M. A., L.L. D. A group of interesting narratives describing some of the most interesting events of Oklahoma's early history. These stories are historically accurate and are as entertaining as romances. Bound in cloth; 187 pages. Price $1.50.

THE SEQUOYAH CONVENTION. By C. M. Allen. A history of the movement started in 1905 to bring about the admission of Indian Territory into the Union as a separate state under the name of Sequoyah. Written in simple and forceful English, this book tells how certain Indians and white men of Indian Territory adopted a constitution, named a capitol and petitioned congress, why the president and congress refused to admit the territory as a state, how opposing Indian and white elements were at last harmonized and Indian Territory and Oklahoma finally admitted as one state. Cloth binding. Illustrated. Publication date, September 1, 1922. Price $1.00.

THE GOVERNMENT OF OKLAHOMA. By Frederick F. Blachly, Ph. D. A remarkably enlightening study showing exactly what Oklahomas State government is and how it operates. Beginning with a brief historical survey of the state, the book points out the ideals and principles of those who established the constitution; describes fully the governmental organization set up, state, local and municipal; criticizes in an unprejudiced way several faults of the present system and suggests carefully thought-out methods of remedying the evils found to exist. Not only are the facts given but they are supported with a host of citations from the constitution, laws, court decisions and authorities. It is one of the most useful books on state government ever issued. Bound in cloth. Publication date, September 1, 1922. Price $3.50.

DURHAM'S MANUAL. By W. F. Durham. A rule and guide to parliamentary practice and procedure, based upon Jefferson's Manual, which is used by Congress, and embracing "Reed's Rules," "Roberts' Rules of Order," "Waple's Rules," and "Cushing's Manuel." It also contains the constitutional and statutory provisions now in use by the courts of Oklahoma and the practices of the Oklahoma Legislature. It is the manual adopted by the Oklahoma House of Representatives as the basis of its parliamentary procedure. The author has been an ardent student of parliamentary practice for a number of years and was a member of the Oklahoma Legislature for several years. Well indexed. Price $1.50.

DIVISIONAL WAR HISTORIES

THE STORY OF THE 36TH. By Captain Ben F. Chastaine. A complete story of the 36th Division's part in the World War as written by a member of the division. Keen observation, first-hand information and literary skill have united to make this story one of the best divisional histories of our nation's part in the War. Handsomely bound in cloth and fully illustrated. Price $3.00.

TRAIL OF THE 61ST. By Rex F. Harlow. A novel, interesting story dealing entirely with the non-combat experiences of the members of the 61st Field Artillery brigade during the World War. This story tells in clear expressive English of the manner in which the soldiers lived, how they were fed, their comforts and discomforts and their work and play, and brings to light in an interesting way the reaction on the western man to eastern and foreign environments. French habits, customs, and home life are also illuminatingly discussed. The author was a member of the brigade during its activities in the United States and in France. About 250 illustrated pages. Price $3.00.

THE HISTORY OF THE 90TH. By Major George Wythe. A complete and accurate history of everything the 90th Division did from the time it left Camp Travis until its return from the army of occupation in Germany. Major Wythe, the division's historian, has embodied not less than 75 illustrations, a dozen maps and 259 well written pages in this interesting work. Size 7½x10 inches. Printed on fine coated paper and artistically bound in art canvas, stamped in gold and two colors. Price $5.20, delivered.

MISCELLANEOUS

DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA. By Jerome Dowd, M. A. This book shows in a very interesting way the relation of democracy to the progress of civilization as revealed by its results in America. The following subjects are broadly and pointedly discussed: Political Life, Democracy and War, Social Organization, Religious life, Literature, The Press, The Drama, Oratory, Music, Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Manners, Science, Education, and Philosophy. Dr. A. F. Winship, Editor Boston Journal of Education, says, "'Democracy in America' is dandy. It has the true ring. It is a highly valuable treatment in a broad way of all phases of democratic influence." And Henry Van Dyke of Princeton University adds, "I have been reading through it with very great pleasure. It is clear, well composed, and thought-provoking, a good book for young Americans to read. The closing of the book with that fine quotation from Josiah Royce is admirable."

Bound in cloth; 500 pages; price $3.50.

THE AMERICAN PATRIOTIC READER. By Charles Evans, M. A., LL. D. According to the estimate of the leading school men of Oklahoma and the United States, this book contains the finest aggregation of short literature dealing with the story of the World War that has ever been collected. It includes great addresses of statesmen, descriptive articles of various phases of the war, selections from graphic stories of actual fighting, and a careful selection of the most brilliant and moving of the World War poetry. It is in effect a history of the war in the language of participants and eye witnesses—the greatest utterances of that great time. Bound in cloth; 491 pages; price $1.50.

EIGHT GREAT AMERICAN LAWYERS. By Horace H. Hagan. An inspirational, instructive, entertaining and historically accurate study of the lives of eight great American lawyers: Luther Martin, William Pinkney, William Wirt, Thomas Addis Emmit, Rufus Choates, Seargent S. Prentiss, Judah P. Benjamine and William M. Evart. The author, who is now a practicing attorney and who for a number of years was assistant attorney general of Oklahoma, has combined legal talent with a finished writer's skill to include in these sketches many sidelights on some of the greatest court decisions handed down in America. The book is replete with bits of our nation's best oratory and is permeated with wholesome wit and bubbling good humor.

Bound in cloth; about 300 pages. Publication date, September 1, 1922. Price $2.50.

TRAINING FOR POWER AND EFFICIENCY. By A. H. Stewart, M. D. An enlightening and scholarly study showing the relation of physical fitness, power of purpose, vocational guidance, moral clear sightedness and values of appreciation to man's normal success and growth. This book will inspire boys to fit themselves for useful and worthy pursuits; will offer guidance to parents in helping their children choose proper careers; will urge upon the teacher the necessity of making the subject fit the individual needs of the child; and will bring about a more friendly spirit of harmony and co-operation between employer and employee. Bound in cloth; about 200 pages. Publication date, September 1, 1922. Price $2.00.

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO. By Launa Smith, M. A. A carefully prepared and thorough analysis of the United States' relations with Mexico during the troublous period beginning in 1907 and lasting until 1917.

The book clearly points out why American expeditions into Mexico were necessary and what they accomplished; gives the cause of Mexico's social unrest, chaotic political conditions and unstable government; traces the country's governmental progress and lack of progress during the past few years, and states what must take place before her present government will be recognized by the United States and other nations.

No pains have been spared in making this study absolutely authentic and historically accurate. The author has spent several months in Mexico inspecting every available record and securing first-hand information from every possible source, and has exhausted the diplomatic and congressional information available.

Bound in cloth. About 350 pages Publication date November 1, 1922. Price to be announced.

EVERYMAN'S SCIENCE

BY

DANIEL RUSSELL HODGDON, Sc.D., LL.D.

559 PAGES—$3.00—440 ILLUSTRATIONS

This book is full of simple, interesting facts which every man, woman and child should know—all of them dealing with common phenomena of every-day life.

HOW MANY OF US

Can read gas, electric, and water meters?
Can make an iceless refrigerator?
Can tell the age of a star or an egg?
Understand heating, lighting, and ventilating systems?
Understand the principle of dry farming?
Know the relation of humidity to health?
Know why the rainfall of a country becomes greater after the land is cultivated?
Know the principles of mixing colors?

These questions and a thousand more like them are all answered and explained in this book.

Over five hundred pages of valuable worth while information.

World wickedness and deluge. GENESIS 7.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7] CHAPTER 7.

The general deluge.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW, 5. in the mount.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'ĭ-à: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gäl'ĭ-lee, and from Dē-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jē-rų'sā-lēm, and from Jū-dæ'à, and from beyond Jor'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Beginning of the sermon in the mount. 14 The light of the world. 21 What it is to kill. 38 Exhortation to suffer wrong. 44 Love our enemies. 48 Labour to be perfect.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phär'ĭ-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Generations of Terah. GENESIS, 12. God calleth Abram.

17 And Ē′bĕr lived after he begat Pē′leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18 And Pē′leg lived thirty years, and begat Rē′u:
19 And Pē′leg lived after he begat Rē′u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
20 And Rē′u lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē′rug:
21 And Rē′u lived after he begat Sē′rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lŏt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ûr of the Chăl′dees.
29 And Ā′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ā′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mĭl′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mĭl′cah, and the father of Ĭs′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ā′brăm his son, and Lŏt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ā′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ûr of the Chăl′dees, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ā′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lŏt went with him: and Ā′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ā′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lŏt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ā′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sī′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-ite was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ā′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā′brăm went down into Ē′gўpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′gўpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gўp′tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The temple to be destroyed. 9 Signs of Christ's coming. 32 Exhortation to watch.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

I KINGS, 20. Samaria besieged.

311 CHAPTER 20.

AND Běn-hā'dăd the king of Sȳr'i-a gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Sa-mā'ri-a, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ā'hăb king of Ĭs'ra-el into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Běn-hā'dăd,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Ĭs'ra-el answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

even all the children of Ĭs'ra-el, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon: but Běn-hā'dăd was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Běn-hā'dăd sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Sa-mā'ri-a.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Sȳr'i-ans fled: and Ĭs'ra-el pur-

Christ is tempted. ST. MATTHEW, 4, 5. He beginneth to preach.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'şus [r] from Găl'i-lee to Jôr'dăn unto Jŏhn, to be baptized of him.
14 But Jŏhn forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?
15 And Jē'şus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to [s] fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.
16 And [t] Jē'şus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [u] the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
17 And [v] lo a voice from heaven, saying, [w] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

S. LUKE, 19. Christ visiteth a publican.

Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Je-

CHAPTER 19. 992

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jēr'i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-chæ'us, make haste, and come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods, I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of A'bra-ham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

Phăr'ĭ-seeș were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [m] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [n] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 [o] Then answered Pē'tĕr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'ṣus said, [p] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [q] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [s] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [t] Then Jē'ṣus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [u] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭṣ'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [x] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'ṣus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 [y] And Jē'ṣus departed from thence, and came nigh [z] unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 [a] And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'ṣus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Ĭṣ'ra-el.

32 ¶ [b] Then Jē'ṣus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [c] And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'ṣus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [d] he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [e] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 [f] And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'dą-là.

heard that, said, This man calleth for E-lī'as.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether E-lī'as will come to save him.
50 ¶ Jē'sus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
53 And came out of the
58 He went to Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'sus. Then Pī'late commanded the body to be delivered.
59 And when Jō'seph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.
61 And there was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, and the other Mā'rў, sitting over against the sepulchre.
62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phăr'i-sees came together unto Pī'late,

ST. LUKE, 5.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mō'şeş commanded, for a testimony unto them.
15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.
16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.
17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phär'ī-seeş and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'ā, and Jē-ru'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.
18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'şus.
20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the scribes and the Phär'ī-seeş began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?
22 But when Jē'şus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?
24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.
27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.
28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.
29 And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.
30 But their scribes and Phär'ī-seeş murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
31 And Jē'şus answering

BOOK OF JUDGES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests by Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el [a]asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. [c]So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d]the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [2]gathered their meat under my table: [e]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q]Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r]Gā'za with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ĕk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s]the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [5]he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

20 [u]And they gave Hē'bron unto Cā'leb, as Mō'ses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Ā'năk.

21 [v]And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did not drive out the Jĕb'u-sītes that inhabited Je-ru'sa-lĕm; but the Jĕb'u-sītes dwell with the children of Bĕn'ja-min in Je-ru'sa-lĕm unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Jō'seph, they also went up against Bĕth'-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Jō'seph [w]sent to descry Bĕth'-el. (Now the name of the city before was [x]Lŭz.)

The Great Writings of Luther in English

WORKS OF MARTIN LUTHER

PHILADELPHIA EDITION

The works have been translated in their entirety. The editors have had no other desire than to say in English what ıer said in German and in Latin. They have suppressed nothing, but have allowed Luther to speak his own mind in a new ıuage. Most of the works are here put into English for the first time. Of the fifteen writings contained in the first two mes, ten have never been translated into English before.

The translators are men of known scholarly ability. They are eminently qualified for the work they have undertaken o, and it is being done with the utmost care. Each writing has its own separate introduction, and allusions which the ern reader finds difficult are explained in foot-notes.
